French Plane Lost With 39

DC-3 Disappears On Run To North Africa

PERPIGNAN, France, Sept 13 (AP)—Airport officials here said today that 36 passengers and three crewmen are aboard a French DC-3 plane missing on its run over the Mediterranean from Toulouse, France, to Oran, North Africa.

Authorities at Toulouse said earlier there were only eight passengers and three crewmen.

They apparently did not include 28 others who boarded the plane here.

The plane left Toulouse Wednesday morning and was scheduled to land at Oran in the afternoon. It was last sighted over Valencia, Spain, Wednesday afternoon after leaving Perpignan.

At least one plane from Algiers and a torpedo boat from Oran are searching the Mediterranean.

A feeder airline from Clermont-Ferrand in central France had brought 17 of the new passengers here.

Those who finally took off, according to passenger lists here, included 12 children, four of them babies.

The New York Daily News said today that James Reardon, wanted as a prosecution witness at the mass conspiracy trial, has returned to his Westport (Conn.) home.

The News said Reardon, a former New York City policeman, "simply walked" into his home last night after being in "the realm of the missing."

The Republican Central Committee agreed Wednesday night to aid a drive to register unqualified voters by providing transportation to the County Election Board's office at City Hall.

Committeemen said at least two telephone centers will be set up where would-be voters can phone for rides. David B. Mackintosh, chairman, presided at the first strategy meeting for the Nov 6 campaign, held in the Council Chamber at City Hall. The registration drive opened Sept 4. The deadline is Sept 26.

Plans also were discussed for getting out the vote and advertising the G O P ticket. A series of meetings was planned during the campaign.

Several candidates and officeholders spoke briefly including Russ C. Heddleston, state central committeeman, Delmar T. O'Hara, state representative, John W. Paul, mayoralty candidate, and George Hales, candidate for re-election to council.

The suit, which had asked a commission for negotiation of the sale, was directed at the former owners.

It is the only brewery in the Ohio Valley between Pittsburgh and Bellare and has a capacity of 50,000 to 60,000 barrels yearly.

Many improvements have been made to the plant under the new ownership.

The company also acquired the ice making plant but the former owners, A. E. Webber and Leonard C. Webber, retained the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. plant, which originally was part of the Crocker City Ice & Products Co.

Auto Hits Lowered Grade Crossing Gate

An East Fourth St. motorist told police his 1950 model car was damaged Wednesday night at 10:30 when he hit a railroad guard gate that was lowered without warning at the Broadway crossing.

Alpha Adams, 42, of 713 East Fourth St. told officers he was turning off the River Road onto Broadway when the gate descended. The right side of his car was damaged and the gate was scratched, he said.

Another collision at 7:15 p. m. in the driveway of the Midway Oil Co. property on the River Road damaged two autos, officers reported. The crash involved a 1941 two-door driven by Clifford Hiller, 15, of 1030 Bank St., and a 1935 convertible operated by Ralph Edwards of Uhrichsville, police said.

A Halfway Friendship

The East Liverpool Ministerial Association has adopted a rule against allowing reporters to attend its meetings. Its newly-written constitution carries one clause that states "no representative of the press will be admitted to the meetings".

In explanation, the association says it often has matters which it would rather discuss in private.

Yet in another paragraph of the constitution, the association gives as one of its purposes "to promote religious fellowship and to secure co-operation in the religious work of the community".

Such promotion probably involves stories in the newspaper—at least church news has been one of the main departments of The Review each Saturday for years.

What the pastors are saying is that there are times when the Review is welcome, other times when it can go peddle its papers.

No newspaper likes that kind of halfway friendship. We imagine the ministers, in the same circumstances, would wonder what kind of a friend they had by the hand.

The good will and co-operation of The Review have been available for so long that they have been taken for granted. The new constitution makes it harder to continue in the same spirit.

We'll Stick Around Anyway

The gist of President Truman's remarks about government spending is that the rest of us are worrying too much. To hear him tell it, things are in good hands, every penny is being watched, and anyone who doubts it is fudging the truth.

With all respect for the President and his associates in Washington, we'll stick around anyway and put in our two cents' worth of nagging about the way government is wasting our money. That happens to be our only chance, statistics to the contrary notwithstanding.

In other words, Mr. Truman and other apologists for public spending can play every lullaby in their repertoire on the musical cash register and we won't feel sleepy. When federal taxes have reached a point where they must be taken out before an ordinary citizen collects his pay, to make sure Caesar gets what is owing to Caesar, taxes have ceased to be tolerable.

When the spending antics of the federal government have grown so widespread and so fantastic that no one knows how to stop them, that can mean only one thing: There is too much money to spend.

When it becomes feasible for one agency of government to squander hundreds of millions while other agencies scrounge for the wherewithal to carry on basic housekeeping jobs, that agency is eating too high on the taxpayer.

It may make sense to Mr. Truman. He may feel philosophical about it, and as confident as a fellow who has just struck oil in the back yard. But there becomes a question of what makes Mr. Truman an authority on this sort of thing.

Thanks just the same for the privilege of leaving it all in your hands, Mr. President. But the rest of us will stick around and complain to the best of our ability. We think we could spend some of that money to better advantage than it is being spent by the spenders, after they have clipped off their discount for handling. That's our story and we're stuck with it for another 150 years or so, we hope.

Punt, Pass And Prayer

This being football season, and football being a game which reflects the American temperament, a comparison between diplomacy and football may be timely.

The United States at San Francisco used something very much like the famous football system employed with great success by the University of Michigan under Fielding H. Yost's 20-year reign.

It demonstrated to 40-odd governments the strategic advantages of the "punt, pass and prayer". Under Yost, that combination kept Michigan's gridiron opponents off balance and piled up victories.

The combination worked because it kept the opposition guessing. It had its failures, to be sure, but it had somewhat more than a reasonable share of success. It kept Michigan's opponents on the defensive for nearly 20 years.

The great significance of the San Francisco peace treaty conference is that it put the Communist conspiracy on the defensive. Its members now must devise ways and means of stopping a momentous development in Asia at a time when they already are busy trying to stop a momentous development in Europe.

The United States has tired of being on the defensive—waiting to see what the Kremlin will think of next. The Kremlin now is waiting to see what the United States will think of next.

Gables laid near shore need to be thicker than those in deep water because of danger from chafing or ships' anchors.

Behind The News

By George Sokolsky

Let's Preserve The Beauty Of Early American Life

While the San Francisco conference was in session, I was traveling in the atmosphere of old New England.

Maybe I should have got all excited, hopped on a plane, taken a seat in the press gallery and watched Acheson and Gromyko fight the battle of wits and words.

Instead, starting in the Berkshire Hills, we motored toward Maine.

First we went to a little place called Sturbridge, where a New England village of the 18th century has been reconstructed within its proper setting. There we lunched and the trip had an unexpectedly good start.

Then we motored to Concord, to the city of Emerson and Hawthorne and the irrepressible Alcotts. My little girl was principally interested in Little Women and my wife in the chaste houses of New England.

HAWTHORNE pervades this area. Concord, Salem, Stockbridge—he seems to have left his mark wherever he lived. And to see a chair on which Emerson sat and Hawthorne wrote is to get at the very roots of things American.

We were on our way to York Harbor, Me., where I was to do a chore of speechmaking for my friend Marion Martin. Unfortunately, I missed Portsmouth on this trip.

No city has more charming early-American houses than Portsmouth, except Salem, and Charleston, S. C.

To Portsmouth's houses, even a tourist must devote a week; that is, if the tourist finds beautiful homes interesting and exciting and if his imagination can make him feel the lives of our progenitors.

For a house bespeaks personality. That is never true of a city apartment or of those banged-together affairs with all modern conveniences, but no lived-in atmosphere.

Show me what kind of homes men build for their families and I can almost sense their ideals of life. That, in a simpler and even truer way, my little girl said about Louisa May Alcott's home in Concord and about the House of the Seven Gables in Salem where Hawthorne's cousin, Susan Ingersoll, lived.

We bedded down in Salem at the Hawthorne Hotel, which the local citizens built just off the square.

But we could not remain indoors with so much beauty about us. So we trudged through the night, looking at the outsides of these unbelievably beautiful houses, some of which we would visit the next day.

The builders of these homes, many dead a century or so, were known to me with such intimacy as comes from China Coast tables.

For many of them were the masters and supercargoes of the clipper ships which sailed from Salem to Asia when this nation was young, bringing back with them silks and teas and spices to enrich the lives of our people.

Their homes speak eloquently of their great love for country and family. Only such as dreamed of home on the vast and tumultuous seas, as they rounded the cape or sailed across the expansive Pacific, could put such affection into the place to which, wind and weather being willing, they would one day return.

The doors of Chestnut St. are a holiday of affection for home. And in Salem all the doors of the old houses point to the sea, as Moslems pray facing toward Mecca. In the Essex Institute, it is possible to spend hours, perhaps years, tracing out the stories of these courageous traders.

IN THE House of Seven Gables and in other houses there are, of course, secret staircases and chimneys into which children could be hidden.

This was for safety against Indian raids and such events. Those people knew no security and risked much. Perhaps that is why their houses are built so closely together. And yet, even now, there is an air of peace and quiet in this town which is hard to find elsewhere, particularly in a place where industry and neon signs and the automobile are also present.

Salem captured my imagination and love and I could not help wondering why the Ford Foundation, which seeks to spend millions in all parts of the world, does not devote itself to the restoration and preservation of the national monuments of American tradition.

New England is rich in such treasures, but they exist all over this land. Henry Ford was captured by an enthusiasm for old America. It would be a living monument to him if all the beauty of the early periods of American life could be preserved as the French safeguard their national monuments. That would be something useful for the Ford Foundation to do.

Inside On Labor

By Victor Riesel

Two "young" Turks quietly flew in from Istanbul this week to report to American labor chiefs on progress in a maneuver, there in the gateway to the Orient, that will save thousands of G.I. lives, get guns and ammo to our troops swiftly and prevent the turbulent Near Eastern Moslem kings and pashas from ganging up on us under needling from Soviet agents.

As we talked with Ismail Aras and Mehmet Inhanli, we found that they preferred that their translator tell more about their willingness to fight the Soviet army on their eastern border, just a few hours from their home, rather than discuss their part in the sensitive and intricate process of winning over a part of the world which pulsates with death threats, assassinations, bribery, wild political rioting and tribal revolts—all financed by the Russians.

We finally did draw from Ismail and Mehmet the details of their youngest national union movement—just about two years old.

SLOWLY, and with the help of the A.F.L.'s international "scarlet pimpinell", Irving Brown, who prefers the less romantic title of A.F.L. European representative, these Turks have been creating the first important Moslem unions in the Near East.

If such a Moslem national union federation can succeed in Turkey, it can win the allegiance of workers around the Suez Canal, in North Africa ports and even in Iran.

In other words, it's our friends, Ismail and Mehmet and their colleagues, against the Soviet-financed, anti-American and anti-British nationalist forces in the Near East, cockpit of the next war.

The Turks reported that they will tell their friends at the A.F.L.'s 70th annual convention in San Francisco next week that there are some 375,000 industrial workers in their home land.

Of these, about 75,000 are signed up in unions. But so young are these outfits that they have not yet found time to organize a national federation such as the A.F.L. or C.I.O. They have no money. Mehmet, who is vice-president of the Istanbul Federation of Labor, and Irving Brown revealed that this unit is operating on about $40 a week.

Its president, Zuhtu Tedey, is still a working electrician in a flour mill and runs the union office in his spare time after leaving the plant.

The new unions, which were launched in 1950, cover only coal-digging, textile, service trades, transport, the water front and the shipyards—where the underground Communists have infiltrated and run some wildcat strikes. Incidentally, the unions have just won the right to strike, but under the law have no right to political action.

Their importance in the world struggle is tremendous in an area of Soviet espionage. The government is slowly revamping itself into a democracy—and it needs Turkish labor's help.

It has 700,000 excellently-trained men ready to battle on the Soviet-Turkish border. This is a terrific economic burden, and has been so since 1942. Yet the government doesn't want to crack down on its workers seeking higher wages. Therefore, a free labor movement is necessary to reconcile the needs of the working man and the need for standing guard where the iron curtain actually rests on the edge of the western world.

THE GOVERNMENT needs Turkish labor's help, too, in another Soviet-created crisis.

Moscow has ordered Bulgaria to deport 250,000 Turkish-speaking Bulgarians across the border into Turkey. Some 55,000 already have been torn from their homes and dumped into the land of their ancestors. Turkey must find jobs and food for the newcomers. It also must weed out the spies planted by the Russians among the involuntary immigrants.

To handle this economic and internal security problem, the government needs the aid of intelligent labor leaders. They also are needed at the other end of the nation, where there's a constant entry of Soviet agents across the border in the guise of working men. Hundreds of these are picked up regularly and tried in ultra-secret sessions in unknown Erzurum, eastern Turkey.

The Turkish workers' organizations also are needed by the Mediterranean section of the Central Vigilance Committee, a group which was organized with the help of the A.F.L. to fight, violently if necessary, Russian sabotage of our military cargoes across the open seas.

Two months ago, this committee, ignoring death threats nailed to the door of their meeting halls by underground Communies, met in Salonica, Greece. They discovered from their own anti-Communist agents that the Soviets planned to cripple the water front of Alexandria, Egypt, gateway to the Suez Canal.

Our people called on the Turks to help them deal with the Moslem workers whom the Russians were attempting to stir into riot on Alexandria's docks.

The Turks rushed in where non-Moslems feared to tread. These are the kind of allies Ismail Aras and Mehmet Inhanli represent. We can use more of them. It's time the world knew more about them.

Strange Picket

A Return To The Facts Of The Past

By Raymond Moley

The basic issue decided by the new Japanese treaty and the U.S.-Japanese security pact was not stated in the flowery oratory that marked the end of the San Francisco conference.

Those speeches and statements were, as might be expected, full of the spirit of peace and reconciliation.

But what has been decided now by the United States and other Pacific nations signing the treaty is the establishment of a new balance of power in the Pacific, with a new line of American defense consistent with vital American interests, from Alaska through Japan, the Philippines and Formosa to Australia and New Zealand.

The free nations involved in that line already have joined in agreement for mutual aid.

longer now. Hence the arm of defense must be longer and stronger. The other factor is the menace of Communist imperialism and the emergence of Communist China as a great military force.

Science and enlightenment have created the first of these factors. It was the folly of our diplomacy in dealing with Russia and China that created the second.

THE TRUMAN-ACHESON regime, the heir and to a degree the maker of those ill-fated decisions at Yalta and in China, finally has seen things as they are and has taken its stand on the principles of Seward, Blaine, Hay and Theodore Roosevelt.

To a degree, this change marks the ascendancy in the history of foreign policy of T.R. over F.D.R. It also will mark the acceptance of MacArthur's assertion that our interests and our lifeline demand that Formosa remain in friendly hands.

This despite the foolish policy, earlier held by our state Department, that Formosa was of no strategic importance to us.

The die is now cast for the new policy, which is in a sense a return of the facts of the past. Despite threats and dangers from the Communist world, we cannot waver or compromise.

An Unhealthy Giant

By Harry Ferguson

Fear of the American atomic bomb is one reason why Stalin doesn't blow the whistle to start World War Three. But it isn't the only one.

He has too many troubles in his own back yard.

Gigantic Russia is like lots of human giants. They are terrifying to look at, but actually they are not healthy.

They are suffering from internal troubles and aches and pains at the extremities. They are too muddled to be effective in a fight. As was proved at San Francisco, you can kick them around at will and nothing much happens.

Evidence is piling up that Stalin has too many headaches at home to give much thought to trying to take over the world by force in the immediate future. It includes:

1.—A drastic shake-up in the government of the Communist puppet nation of Czechoslovakia. Some of the men who have become known as Stalin's stooges are out.

2.—Communist China is plagued with internal dissension and the threat of a famine in North China which may affect three million persons.

3.—Albania, another puppet state of Moscow in Europe, announced it had overhauled its government and that three ministers have been dismissed.

4.—The French Communist party made an abrupt switch in the party line and started a campaign stressing "French independence".

What has happened is that all of these nations are learning the bitter lesson that Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia learned when he tried to get along with Moscow and still remain in power in his own nation.

It is this—that the Kremlin expects every satellite nation to hitch its wagon to Moscow's red star. You must never decide any issue on the basis of what is good for your own people, be they Yugoslians, Albanians, French or Chinese. You must decide everything on the basis of what is good for Russia and the Russians.

Czechoslovakia, which manufactures lots of machinery, must send her tractors, guns and tanks to Russia. The Chinese must send soldiers to be killed in Korea.

They never talk about it, but all the Communist bosses in the puppet nations keep thinking about how Tito defied the Stalin lightning and thunder and got away with it.

None of them is ready right now to go as far as he did, but the things that are happening in the satellite nations show that somebody is doing considerable thinking.

As of now Stalin is in the position of a man who would like to go around burning down people's houses, but can't find the time to do it. He's too busy patching his own roof.

Why No Economy From Truman?

President Truman put his political foot into it with his speech attacking those who want to see the government economize on expenditures.

The truth is that while it is hard to cut the budget and keep some political fences built up, the number of citizens affected by the higher taxes is far larger in political power than those relatively few who benefit by governmental favors and benefits that could be cut.

What Truman may not realize is that his administration has not assisted Congress in cutting the budget and that even on military expenses the impression is given that when the executive branch hands a figure to Congress that's the last word on the subject.

There's nothing sacrosanct about executive agency figures. For a long time the habit has been to pad the figures on the expectation that Congress would cut them down.

It's true that there are certain non-defense items which can't be cut, such as the interest on the public debt. But to say that all expenditures for veterans cannot be reviewed or that other established programs of governmental spending cannot be reduced is to be unrealistic.

SOONER OR LATER the atmosphere in Washington will have to change from one of indifference to the fact that the saturation point in taxes is being reached to one of solicitude as to how future revenues are to be raised. Sooner or later also government borrowing will become more difficult when the public begins to understand that there are limits on taxation.

Sooner or later it will become apparent, moreover, that the mere increasing of rates doesn't bring in more revenue and actually may bring in less money. The point of diminishing returns, it is believed, already has been reached, for example, on both tobacco and liquor taxes.

The contrast between the attitude of a private business facing a financial stringency and the attitude of government is striking indeed. A private business has no compunctions about eliminating waste and luxuries when the time comes to balance the budget. But the federal government under analogous circumstances doesn't cut till it hurts—it rarely cuts at all.

Congress, to be sure, has the main responsibility. A few members, like Senator Douglas of Illinois and Senator Byrd of Virginia—and there are a few others—have been urging the need for economy. But the majority in both parties are afraid to antagonize the pressure groups which are interested in maintaining a flow of federal appropriations especially to certain sections of the country.

THE ONLY LEADERSHIP that can be expected to deal with this kind of a situation must be national. The President represents the entire country and not any particular state or district. But when a President refuses to countenance the drive for economy and actually assails those who try to economize, then a feeling of despair arises which can be far more dangerous in the long run than is apparent today.

For eventually, as a psychology develops nationally that no matter what the arguments are the administration in power intends to keep on spending, the fear of a run on the dollar will arise. There is no exception to the rule—once a people lose confidence in the integrity of their monetary unit they do not readily regain it without a major reorganization of fiscal affairs. The danger signals may appear shortly as foreign governments seek to revalue their own currencies higher to meet what they see is a depreciating dollar.

High prices aren't the only stimulus in inflation. Much more important is a possible loss of confidence in the dollar—and this could emanate from a failure to economize and a failure to tax on a basis that will produce needed revenue.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO—S. A. Martin was awarded the contract for erection of the new United Presbyterian Church in Chester, which was to be built on the site of the present church.

Seventeen members of the 1914 graduating class of Wellsville High School attended a reunion on Beaver Creek with Wallace Wells, Helen Fogo and Diana McLain as the speakers.

Attorney James Davis, Earl Hancock, George Hancock and William Hancock were injured when the automobile in which they were riding went over a 25-foot embankment on the Smiths Ferry-Ohioville Road.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—Ray T. Roberts was given permission to organize a saxophone band of 20 pieces to be sponsored by East Liverpool Post 4 of the American Legion.

The C. C. Thompson Pottery Co. awarded a contract to the Ladd-Cronin Engineering Co. for the installation of two continuous kilns at its plant on the River Road.

Miss Mildred Bogges, music instructor in Newell schools, called a rehearsal of 16 instrumental pupils in a movement for the organization of a school orchestra.

TEN YEARS AGO—Wallace Nellis, Patience Kind, Jane Ellen Barlow, Jay Kinsey, Robert Weinhardt, Barbara White and Margaret Wilson spoke at a special vocational assembly of the East Liverpool High School student body.

City officials voted to abandon the move for issuance of $35,000 in bonds and to seek approval of the WPA for the improvement of Pennsylvania Ave.

Charles J. Russell of Wellsville tendered his resignation as a member of the District 1 Draft Board because of his plans to spend the winter in Florida.

Big 3 Wind Up West German Defense Plan

Acheson, Morrison Back French Idea On Use Of Troops

WASHINGTON Sept. 13 (AP)—The Big Three foreign ministers hope to wrap up by nightfall a peace contract proposal to bring West Germany into the western defense line-up.

The way was cleared last night when Secretary of State Dean Acheson and British Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison pledged support to the companion plan devised by France to make use of German troops in a European army.

Pressing for a windup of their conference without a Friday meeting, Acheson, Morrison and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman called a morning session to iron out their remaining differences over the German issue.

The latest warning from Moscow against rearming the Germans sounded yesterday in a Soviet note to France was ignored.

Some details of the political settlement will be left for the Allied high commissioners to negotiate with the Bonn (West German) government but the outlines already have been accepted by the three powers convinced now there is no hope at the moment of an agreement with Russia on a peace treaty for a unified Germany.

Left for consideration by the Big Three were these other issues—U. S. plans to set up military bases in Spain Italy's plea for revision of the peace treaty which sets a 300,000-man ceiling on Italian armed forces the threat of Red China and other Far East problems and joint action to protect western nationals behind the iron curtain in cases like the imprisonment of Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis by Communist Czechoslovakia.

The new contractual arrangement to be offered Bonn is a substitute for a formal peace treaty such as was signed with Japan.

It gives West Germany virtually complete sovereignty, abolishes the Allied High Commission with its veto powers and changes the occupation armies into defense forces.

Bonn on its part will be expected to contribute troops to the six nation European army to be formed as part of the North Atlantic defense forces under General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Five Dance Their Way Out Of Yugoslavia

SALZBURG Austria Sept. 13 (AP)—Five Yugoslav ballet dancers who performed in the Edinburgh Scotland music festival announced last night they are not going back home.

They have no quarrel with Marshal Tito's politics they said but they see little future for their art in Yugoslavia.

A company of 40 dancers from the Belgrade and Zagreb operas took part in the Edinburgh festival. After a brief stop here 35 of them took the train to Belgrade late Tuesday.

The five have asked the International Refugee Organization to help them emigrate to Canada where they would like to join the newly formed Canadian National Ballet.

In Toronto Celia Franca director of Canada's National Ballet Co. said she does not believe there would be an opening for the five Yugoslavs in that company this year.

Cold Front Moves East With Wind And Rain

By The United Press
A tremendous cold front—extending from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico—moved eastward today preceded by violent wind and thunderstorms that grounded planes in Indiana and touched off a tornado in Wisconsin.

An extensive squall line, laden with rain and packing winds up to 60 miles an hour, rode eastward in advance of the cold front. Temperatures dropped as much as 30 degrees in several places in the northern Midwest.

In Chicago nearly an inch of rain driven by winds in excess of 50 miles an hour, pelted the city. Two persons were hurt in the Wisconsin tornado.

Truman And Dewey Confer At White House

WASHINGTON Sept. 13 (AP)—President Truman invited his opponent of the bitter political campaign of 1948—to the White House today for an exchange of views of the problems of world peace.

Republican Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York has an appointment to tell the President his observations on a recent trip to Korea and the Far East.

Truman had an opportunity, if he chose to take it, to tell reporters promptly how he and the New York governor hit it off. His weekly news conference is scheduled later this afternoon.

Deaths and Funerals

Former City Teller Taken

Rites Set At Canton For Thomas Kober

Thomas M. Kober, a former East Liverpool bank teller, died early Wednesday morning in Mercy Hospital in Canton, following an eight-week illness. He was 62.

Kober, a son of the late Thomas and Ella Murphy Kober, spent his younger days here. A graduate of East Liverpool High School, he was a teller in the former Dollar Savings Bank until 1919 when he went to Canton, where he was engaged in banking circles for more than 30 years.

He was first vice-president of the Canton National Bank when he retired Dec. 31, 1949, because of poor health. He lived at 235 15th St., NW, in Canton. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Kober leaves no near relatives. His wife, formerly Mable Himmel, right of Canton, died about a year and a half ago.

Services will be held Friday at 3 p. m. in the C. D. Spiker, Inc. Funeral Home, 710 Tuscarawas West, Canton. Burial will be there.

Blast Furnace To Be Rekindled

The No. 3 Blast Furnace of the Crucible Steel Co. at Midland, which has been completely re-lined, will be started up Friday morning, M. N. Lindsay, superintendent, announced today.

He said the first steel will be produced within 24 hours after lighting.

Production will be 600 tons per day, about the same as before repairs were made. That is normal production of a furnace that size, he explained.

Blown out July 2, it was expected to be ready by Aug. 15, but it was discovered 1,404 net tons had frozen in the salamander. "We had to blast it out," Lindsay said, "instead of draining it," accounting for the delay.

The old hearth and bosh were in No. 3 since April 20, 1930, and only the stack had been re-lined since that date.

Prior to the start of the re-lining the furnace had produced 4,650,000 tons of iron on the same hearth and bosh, which was a record for an 18-foot furnace.

Religious Leaders Hail New 7-Year Study Of Bible

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—What new light has modern investigation and study shed on the Bible?

For seven years, 146 leading Protestant theologians and ministers in this country and abroad have been compiling data to answer this question.

Last night, they issued the first of a 12-volume series detailing the accumulated information.

Entitled "The Interpreter's Bible," it seeks to tell all that mankind has discovered about the Scriptures from ancient times to the present.

Some 200 religious leaders and educators last night attended a dinner for presentation of the initial volume.

"Unquestionably this is the most important publication in the religious field for over half a century," said Dr. Halford Luccock, a top Biblical scholar, of the Yale Divinity School.

"A magnificent achievement," said Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam.

The new work, said Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert, executive secretary of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., "will help keep scholarship from being sterile and preaching from being superficial."

About one million dollars has been poured into the job of research and assembling material.

With encyclopedic detail, the discoveries of archeological excavations, new-found manuscripts and historical and geographical research are presented concerning each Bible verse.

Such questions as these are answered: Who wrote this book of the Bible? When was it written? Where? Under what conditions and in the midst of what circumstances?

New Substitute Found For Vitrally-Needed Tin

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—A newly-developed substitute for tin, a vital defense material not produced in this country, was announced yesterday by R.E.C. Director W. Stuart Symington.

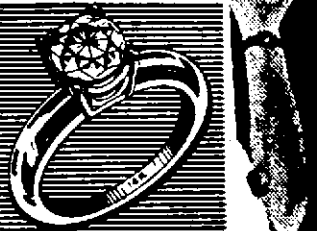

The new product, a blend of plastics with aluminum foil, was developed by the Reynolds Metals Co. of Richmond, Va. Symington said production is starting immediately and all the output for some time will be taken by the armed services.

Soldier's Body Due

SALEM, Sept. 13—The body of Corporal Robert D. Cleckner, son of Emory Cleckner of Salem R. D. 3, is among 604 Korean war dead, being returned on the Valdesa Victory. The Defense Department said the ship was due to dock in San Francisco Wednesday.

Lisbon, a member of the 4-H Scouts.

Officials of the 106th annual fair kept their fingers crossed today hoping for a continuation of fine Fall weather which helped make yesterday's opener a success.

An estimated 5,000 visitors attended. The grandstand was nearly filled for the afternoon harness races and the 4-H steer auction last night.

The sun beamed again as today's events started but the weatherman warned of possible showers this afternoon although tonight and Friday will be cloudy and cool.

Today is Lisbon Day and High School Bands from Lisbon and East Palestine will play. Lisbon school children freed today and Friday for the fair will swell attendance. County schools have Friday off.

A weight pulling contest by heavy draft horses—3,000 pounds and over—and cattle judging featured the events this morning.

Harness racing this afternoon featured a 28 trot in two heats for a $300 purse and three heats each in the 217 pace and 224 trot for purses of $450.

The livestock and machinery parade will form at 6:30 tonight in front of the grandstand, followed by variety acts presented by Klein's Attractions of New Waterford. Lisbon merchants will make awards at 10:30.

King Struthoff as Lisbon linked his light weight team—2,970 pounds—to a sled loaded with 6,000 pounds of pig iron and pulled it 13 feet for first place in the pulling contest yesterday.

Joe Fieldhouse of Leetonia could make but 3 1/2 feet on the same load and finished second. His team weighed 2,950.

Other entrants in order of finish—Ray Ash of Salem, Harry Dill of New Waterford, Roy Newman of East Sparta, Dan Delp of Hanover, Jim Barber of Salineville, Jim McIntyre of Amsterdam and Dave Driscoll of Leetonia.

Music was furnished afternoon and evening by Salem High's 70-piece marching band, directed by Howard Pardee, and the Fairmount Children's Home unit complete with its pony cart and acrobatic majorettes.

Lethargia Approaches Halfway Mark On Trip

MT. VERNON, Ind. Sept. 13 (UP)—The raft Lethargia and its crew today headed for the halfway mark of the 1,800-mile float trip to New Orleans.

The raft had traveled 850 miles when it tied up here last night. The halfway mark will be reached shortly after it moves across the Illinois border. It crew left New Kensington, Pa., July 19.

Red Troops Drill

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (AP)—The Russian garrison of East Germany started annual fall maneuvers today.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown was introduced from the judges' stand. He was accompanied by State Representative Clarence Dutch, Wetzell of Lisbon, and Mrs. J. W. Astor of Salem, Republican county chairwoman.

Friday will be 4-H and Kids Day. A pony pulling contest at 9:30, draft horse judging at 10, and pony judging at 11 will be morning events. A 4-H king and queen will be crowned at 1 p.m., followed by dedication of the new 4-H buildings, and pony races at 2 round out the afternoon events.

Following the nightly livestock and machinery parade at 6:30 the Columbiana County Homemakers Chorus, composed of 27 Home Council members, will sing. Mrs. Carl Bowman of Lisbon is director.

Klein's Attractions' variety acts at 8:30 will close the day's program. Granges from Lisbon, Willow Grove, Salem, Guilford, Pleasant Valley and Calcutta have extensive displays in the old 4-H building at the North end of the track.

Juvenile Granges from Pleasant Valley, Lisbon and Unity also have display space.

Soldier Back From War

Corporal George M. Donaldson, who wrote home about the time the Defense Department had him listed as missing in Korea, has returned home for a 30-day furlough with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. George K. Donaldson, 806 Aten Ave., Wellsville.

The 22-year-old machinegunner was with a platoon of 18 in the Fifth Regiment that was cut off in the fierce fighting around Wargwan last September. He said it took them three days to fight their way back, covering seven miles.

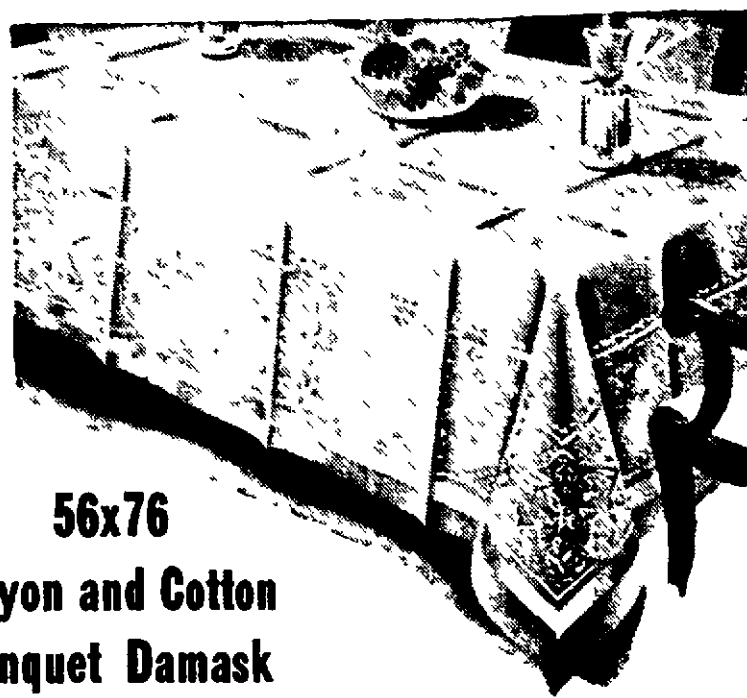

Donaldson arrived in Korea Aug. 18, 1950, and entered battle two days later. He left Korea in February and had been stationed in Japan, arriving back in the States Aug. 30.

A graduate of Wellsville High School in 1947, he enlisted in the Army in 1949.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—Jack Weiss, one of three men accused of homicide and arson after a million-dollar explosion Monday night, died last night following an operation.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as a stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the thousands of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. ## Ohio Motorists Won't Pay Extra $1 For Stickers

COLUMBUS, Sept. 13 (AP)—Ohio motorists who paid $1 extra for special license plates will not pay an extra $1 for their 1952 windshield stickers.

Attorney General C. William O'Neill so ruled yesterday in an opinion to R. E. Foley, state registrar of motor vehicles. Foley wanted to know whether he should charge $1 extra next year for the 80,000 special tags even though stickers will be used.

The last legislature authorized the stickers for use with 1951 license plates next year in order to conserve steel for the rearmament program.

O'Neill also told Foley he can issue special metal license plates for physicians and amateur radio operators, but is not required to unless he furnishes plates for all registrants. The legislature authorized these special plates as part of a civil defense program.

Foley said 1952 windshield stickers will be serially numbered and also will carry the number of the registrant's 1951 license plate.

The windshield stickers will measure two and a quarter by two and three-quarters inches. Passenger cars will have blue stickers. Other types of vehicles will carry different colors.

Driver In Fatal Wreck Loses License For Life

CIRCLEVILLE, O., Sept. 13 (AP)—Frank B. Hamilton, 19-year-old resident of Lockbourne, Franklin county, has lost his driver's license for life.

That was only part of the penalty imposed on the youth by Common Pleas Judge William D. Radcliff of Pickaway county.

Hamilton was the driver of an automobile in which his cousin, Dale Clarence Goodman, 24, also of Lockbourne, was injured fatally on U.S. Route 23 Sunday.

In addition to the life revocation of his driving rights, Hamilton was placed on probation for three years and received a suspended 30-day jail term.

He pleaded guilty to operating an automobile while intoxicated and reckless operation. He paid a $25 fine on each of the two charges.

TO FAT FOLKS!

Here is a NEW Approach to the problem of losing excess fat without Dieting—Hunger

PROVED CLINICALLY BY A GROUP OF NEW YORK DOCTORS
TO BE SAFE, EASY, EFFECTIVE

NO Calorie Counting! NO Diets! NO Exercises!

Thousands Already Acclaim It as the "Miracle Way" to a Slimmer Figure

An astonishing discovery by a group of New York doctors now makes it possible for non-glandular, overweight people to lose pounds of ugly fat every week without going on diets, without giving up the foods they like, without suffering hunger torment.

This discovery, already acclaimed by thousands as the "Miracle Way" to a slimmer figure, is not a drug but a food adjunct called Wafex.

Wafex was discovered after a great deal of research by a group of New York doctors, who were trying to solve the overweight person's NUMBER ONE PROBLEM—DIET-HUNGER.

These doctors knew that many overweight men and women could not reduce by dieting because they would not stay on their diets.

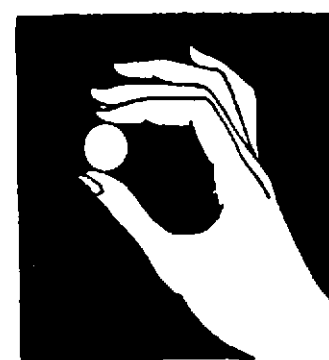

Diets made them hungry and they simply gave in to hunger—they ate between meals or went off their diets entirely. And, of course, back came the excess fat.

The New York doctors were seeking a formula that would help overweight folks lose weight without dieting and without hunger. Their search ended with the discovery of Wafex.

Clinically Proved

They proceeded to test Wafex on a large group of normal, healthy, overweight people. These people were instructed by the doctors not to go on any special diet, not to cut out any special food, just to chew or suck a pleasant Wafex Wafer half an hour before meals.

The results were remarkable. Weight losses of 8 to 20 pounds were obtained in a short period of time; in fact weight reduction was reported the very first week. And most gratifying of all, was that the reductions were accomplished without a hungry moment by a single member of the group.

One Wafex Wafer has the hunger-satisfying capacity of 2 ham sandwiches, or 5 slices of white bread, or 4 eggs. Yet contains only 5 calories.

Physical Checkups Prove Wafex Safe

The doctors checked the physical condition of members of the group, even took electro-cardiograms. Not one case of ill-effect was discovered. In fact, all said they never felt better.

Wafex Available Without a Prescription

Can you guess which are poisons?

As you can see, the drugs in each pair have confusingly similar names. But in each pair, there is one poisonous drug and one that is relatively harmless.

Barium Sulfide is fatally poisonous when taken internally. Its principal use is in certain external applications.

Barium Sulfate is harmless. An insoluble, white substance, it is used as an aid in x-raying and fluoroscopy of the digestive system.

Mercurous Chloride is the relatively safe compound of the other pair. It is occasionally prescribed in small doses as a laxative.

Mercuric Chloride is a violent poison if taken internally. It is used externally as a skin disinfectant.

Your pharmacist knows the actions, uses and dosages of every drug he compounds on your doctor's prescriptions. For he is the legal custodian and dispenser of all drugs, including the most dangerous poisons and the most potent narcotics.

He comes by this public trust by virtue of his training and experience. Thoroughly trained in his profession, thoroughly interested in you and in your community, your pharmacist is a man you can rely on.

Professor Ousted After Indictment In Overthrow Plot
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 13 (AP)—Dr. J. Strunk was suspended from "all duties" at Massachusetts Institute of Technology last night shortly after he was indicted on a charge of advocating overthrow of the government of the United States and the commonwealth of Massachusetts.

The indictment charged that "on May 1, 1948, by speech, exhibition, distribution and promulgation of certain written and printed documents, papers and pictorial representations he did advocate, advise, counsel and incite the overthrow of the governments of the United States and the commonwealth of Massachusetts by force and violence."

A similar indictment was returned against Harry E. Winner, rubber company employee. They were accused of conspiring with Martha N. Fletcher of Boston and Margaret Gilbert of Cambridge. Charges were not brought against the women.

Dr. James R. Killian, MIT president, said Strunk's suspension "is in line with our announced policy." Strunk could not be reached for comment. Winner said the charge against him is wholly untrue and without foundation.

District Attorney George Thompson said the men probably will be arraigned tomorrow.

Senators Open Probe Of Boyle's R.F.C. Role
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—Senate subcommittee set out today to learn whether the political influence of William M. Boyle Jr., Democratic national committee chairman, has been a factor in the making of government loans.

The Senate group headed by Senator Hoyer (D) of North Carolina, promised to go into reasons why the Reconstruction Finance Corp. after three previous refusals loaned $565,000 to a St. Louis printing firm in 1948 after the company hired Boyle as its lawyer. The firm is the American Lithofold Corp.

Hoyer called J. Frank Williams the R.F.C. examiner who handled the loan, and J. E. Toole then treasurer of Lithofold as opening witnesses in the public hearings.

Naval Air Squadron Grounded In Alaska
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—A naval air squadron in Alaska has been grounded by the Navy for morale reasons after a series of recent air crashes there.

Word of the action was given to Representative Mitchell (D) of Washington today in a letter from Francis P. Whitehair, under Secretary of the Navy.

Whitehair said a special board of inquiry is investigating the accidents.

Because of the nature of the squadron's operations, Whitehair said, proceedings of the investigation must be confidential.

A Navy air squadron in the Alaskan area presumably would be used to patrol the ocean between Alaska and Russia.

Bet Phones Ripped Out
CINCINNATI, Sept. 13 (AP)—Most Cincinnati handbooks were reported closed today as vice squad detectives continued to rip out telephones in places suspected of taking bets.

Mrs. Elizabeth Philer of Salineville, who recently underwent a major operation at City Hospital, has been removed home.

Miss Myrtle Kinsey of Georgetown was removed home Wednesday from City Hospital following treatment for a fractured hip sustained in an accident.

Mrs. John Spak of Irondale is in serious condition at City Hospital. She had been confined with illness for the past four months at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Helen Hart of Washington St.

Steel Salesmen To End 'Refresher' Course
Twenty salesmen of the Crucible Steel Co. will complete a "refresher" course Saturday in Midland.

The one-week course during which the mill was toured, has been in charge of Howard Stagg, a representative of the Sales Department of the Syracuse (N. Y.) office.

In addition to the tours, salesmen from the various Crucible plants were informed of the functions of the various departments, with superintendents in charge.

The course is the sixth held at Midland this year.

Meantime employees of the Industrial Engineering Department at the Midland Works have been taking a training course with a representative of the Stevens, Jordan & Harrison Co., in charge.

Cattle Rustlers Shift Operations Eastward
JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—The taming of the wild west apparently has caused cattle rustlers to shift their operations eastward according to the Mississippi Cattleman's Association.

The association reported that in one year 151 cattle and livestock thieves have been arrested in Mississippi by two special livestock theft investigators.

In the same period the two investigators recovered 345 head of cattle valued at $52,160.

Members of the cattlemen's association said they will ask the state legislature to provide eight more special operatives.

Wellsville Drops 2 In Official Population
Mayor C. C. Leatherberry of Wellsville said today the city's official population is 7,854 or two less than the preliminary figure released in June 1950.

The official count was received by the mayor Wednesday in a formal proclamation from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown. The earlier report was given as 7,856 after the census taken last year.

The final total is 172 more than counted in the census taken in 1940 when Wellsville's population was 7,672.

'Pilotless Bomber'
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—The Air Force disclosed today it is forming its first guided missile squadron, equipped with a new 'pilotless bomber' type of weapon apparently intended for tactical use in warfare.

Food Prices Rise

Bowles Named Envoy To India

Henderson Chosen For Iran In Shifts
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—President Truman yesterday nominated Chester Bowles, former governor of Connecticut and World War Two price boss, as ambassador to India.
Loy W. Henderson, the present envoy to India, was nominated to be ambassador to Iran succeeding

Henry F. Grady. Grady's resignation was accepted "with the greatest reluctance."
This snuffing of diplomats would have taken place several months ago had it not been for the Iranian oil crisis and Grady's work in trying to bring about an agreement between that country and Great Britain.
Originally Grady had wanted to withdraw from active diplomatic service in early Summer. But when the oil crisis came up he offered to stay on until September.
Henderson was chosen to succeed Grady, diplomats said, primarily because of his reputation as an able, tough-minded negotiator.

There has been some criticism of Henderson's relations with Prime Minister Nehru of India from persons who thought a diplomat of a different type might get on better with the Indian leader.
Bowles long had been mentioned in public speculation as a likely appointee to a diplomatic post. He is an old friend and supporter of Truman.
Bowles lost out in a re-election bid last November. He headed the Office of Price Administration during part of the last war.

Central Ohio Farmers Hit Hard By Drought

COLUMBUS, Sept. 13 (AP)—Ohio State University agricultural experts estimate central Ohio farmers took more than a $10,000,000 beating from the drought in corn and soybean losses.
Observers said the Ohio rainfall in the last week indicates the losses will not go any higher, however. Pastures and meadows were helped by the rain, but corn and soybeans gained little by the moisture.
Corn currently is selling at about $1.70 a bushel. The estimated loss for Franklin, Knox, Licking, Delaware, Fairfield, Madison, Union, Champaign, Pickaway, Fayette, Marion and Morrow counties is about $140,000 bushels.
OSU experts estimate the corn loss in dollars to be $8,738,150.
The same counties have lost about 540,770 bushels of soybeans. At the present price of about $2.67 a bushel, the loss totals over $1,443,800.

Burns Kill Canton Man

CANTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—A 36-year-old Canton metalworker died yesterday of gasoline burns suffered while he was at work at the National Iron & Metal Co. The victim, James Bunch, died in Aultman Hospital from the burns suffered Sept. 5.

When soiled dish cloths get sour and musty smelling, it's a sign of mold growth. Boil the dish cloths for a few minutes in a quart of water to which two teaspoons of baking soda has been added.

Reds Convene 'Peace' Group

New Call Seen For 'Big Five' Accord
VIENNA, Sept. 13 (AP)—Another meeting of the Moscow-controlled "World Peace Council" is scheduled to open today in Prague. Czechoslovakia, it was learned in western circles today.

No advance mention of the council meeting has appeared in the Communist press so far. But western intelligence groups heard about it a week ago.
The meeting is regarded here as holding a hint of Moscow's answer to the West's diplomatic victory in the signing of the Japanese peace treaty.
Western observers in Vienna said they believe the council will make a new call to the United Nations to sponsor a "pact of peace" among the "Big Five" powers, including Communist China.

Russia has made a number of proposals for a "Big Five" conference. The last important one was contained in the letter of Russia's President Nikolai M. Shvernik to President Truman.
The proposals have been rejected consistently by the West as a propaganda trick.
Some western observers here feel if the UN refuses to sponsor a "Big Five" meeting, the Russians and their satellites in the UN will walk out of the General Assembly meeting at Paris in November and set up the "peace council" as a sort of Soviet-world UN.

More conservative appraisers here do not agree with that.
Iceland adopted Christianity in the year 1,000.

Do Reds Mean Business Now In Yugoslavia?

Increased Temp Of Border Incidents Has Tito Worried

By ALEX SINGLETON
Associated Press Staff Writer
BELGRADE, Sept. 13—Marshal Tito is harvesting a new crop of worries this fall in the form of sharply-increased border hostility, frontier shootings and spy activities by his pro-Russian neighbors.

In the last seven months there have been 837 border incidents along Yugoslavia's frontiers with Albania, Bulgaria, Romania and Hungary. This is nearly one-third of the total for the entire period since Tito's break with the Cominform in June, 1948.

The increased tempo of the Cominform's border pressure—particularly in the last 10 days—has raised the question: Do Russia and her puppet states mean business this time? Are the new incidents a prelude to invasion?

No one knows the answer for certain except the Kremlin. And it isn't talking.

Yugoslavia and the Cominform countries appeared only a short step from actual war as they gathered in late fall crops—bringing to mind the old Balkan adage that "Wars begin when crops are in."

Trade between Yugoslavia and her eastern neighbors ended completely more than a year and a half ago.

Diplomatic relations have been reduced to exchanges of insults, accusations and formal notes protesting various incidents. These notes usually are rejected, denied or calmly ignored.

All along Yugoslavia's twisting eastern and southern frontiers, both sides have posted countless thousands of border guards.

In the danger spots, such as the major travel routes across the frontiers, barbed wire entanglements, pillboxes, recently dug trenches and outlook towers emphasize the border tension.

Behind border outposts are concentrated heavy units of seasoned troops. On the Yugoslav side they probably are most numerous on the Bulgarian border, since military men long have regarded that as the chief danger spot.

Refugees from iron curtain countries tell of widespread preparations—which have the earmarks of preparations for attack—or at least of measures to furnish that impression.

These reports range from the wholesale evacuation of civilians from an area 20 miles deep in Bulgaria and Romania to widespread activity by Russians directing military training and the construction of military establishments, such as a new air base near Sofia.

The outcome may well depend on these three factors:

- 1.—The Kremlin's decision on whether an invasion of Yugoslavia would touch off World War Three.
- 2.—How soon and how much military aid Yugoslavia can get from the West.
- 3.—The chance that the trigger finger of a border guard may touch off a skirmish that might spread all along the border.

Three Bodies Hunted In Stratocruiser Crash

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13 (AP)—Salvage crews today will comb the mud flats of San Francisco Bay and the mangled wreckage of a giant stratocruiser airliner for the bodies of three men killed when the huge plane plummeted into shallow water.

The three—two veteran pilots and a flight engineer—were the only ones aboard when the $1,500,000 United Airlines plane went down 20 miles south of here 45 minutes after the take-off from the San Francisco airport yesterday.

Witnesses said the plane looked as if it had been wrung out like a rag by giant hands.

Aboard the ship were two United Airlines senior captains, Fred Angstadt of Santa Monica, Calif., and Hugh C. Worthington of San Mateo, Calif. The flight engineer was Charles Brogren of Millbrae, Calif.

Bananas Come High

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Lydia M. Holley paid a dear price for a bunch of bananas. As she leaned over to select the bananas from a produce truck, a diamond brooch worth $1,000 dropped from her dress. She didn't miss it until after the driver had pulled away.

The peach was first grown in China and named in Persia.

Japan Granted More Power

May Negotiate With Foreign Missions

TOKYO, Sept. 13 (AP)—The Allied occupying powers today granted Japan broad authority to negotiate directly with foreign diplomatic missions established here.

A Japanese ministry of foreign affairs announcement said the grant has made it possible "for problems arising between various foreign countries and Japan to be made subjects of direct discussion in Tokyo". It added:

"Except for the fact that agreements or treaties with foreign powers must be submitted to general headquarters for prior approval, Japan has fully recovered her right to negotiate with other countries."

The action by General Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme commander for the Allied powers, was one of the first important steps toward restoring Japan's freedom taken since the signing of the Japanese peace treaty last week in San Francisco.

The order excludes the Soviet Union, which has no diplomatic mission here.

The order lays down certain restrictions, however. It specifies that copies of all communications must be submitted to the general headquarters diplomatic section.

"The Japanese government," the memorandum states, "is instructed to use the English language."

The memo also ordered the Japanese government to continue to submit "communications on subjects which involve interpretation of or deviation from standing policies."

Cow Mixed Up

FORT MITCHELL, Ala. — V. O. Deloney, county agent, reported that a farmer's Hereford cow has given birth to twin calves of different breeds. Deloney said such births occur only once in about 600,000. One of the calves is a Brahma and the other a Hereford.

2 Teachers To Attend Leesville Lake Session

Ira Sayre and Joe Mardis will be delegates of the East Liverpool Teachers Association to the three-day conference of district education association leaders Friday through Sunday at Camp Muskingum on Leesville Lake near Carrollton.

Cloyd Miller, president of the National Association, and John D. Blackford of Mariemont, president of the Ohio Association, will be among speakers. About 250 persons will attend. It is sponsored by the Ohio Education Association.

Sayre and Mardis will leave following Friday night's football game and attend Saturday and Sunday.

Three Bodies Hunted In Stratocruiser Crash

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13 (AP)—Salvage crews today will comb the mud flats of San Francisco Bay and the mangled wreckage of a giant stratocruiser airliner for the bodies of three men killed when the huge plane plummeted into shallow water.

The three—two veteran pilots and a flight engineer—were the only ones aboard when the $1,500,000 United Airlines plane went down 20 miles south of here 45 minutes after the take-off from the San Francisco airport yesterday.

Witnesses said the plane looked as if it had been wrung out like a rag by giant hands.

Aboard the ship were two United Airlines senior captains, Fred Angstadt of Santa Monica, Calif., and Hugh C. Worthington of San Mateo, Calif. The flight engineer was Charles Brogren of Millbrae, Calif.

Bananas Come High

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Lydia M. Holley paid a dear price for a bunch of bananas. As she leaned over to select the bananas from a produce truck, a diamond brooch worth $1,000 dropped from her dress. She didn't miss it until after the driver had pulled away.

The peach was first grown in China and named in Persia.

Potters Climax Drills Tonight For Opening Tilt Here Friday

Seven Battles Billed

District Grid Teams Poised For Friday Night Inaugurals

Upsets Mark U.S. Amateur

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 13 (AP)—If anyone had told you that seven Walker Cup stars would be on the sidelines after three days of competition in the 51st National Amateur gold championship, you'd probably have recommended a doctor. But that's just what has happened.

Oklahoma City's thin man, Charley Coe, is the only big name golfer left in the tournament. With the exception of despectated Harold Paddock, Aurora (O.) hunkman all of Coe's Walker Cup teammates, Frank Stranahan, Willie Turnesa, Bobby Knowles, Jimmy McHale, Sam Urzetta, Dick Chapman and Bill Campbell, are on the sidelines.

Yesterday, Defending Champion Urzetta, usually a picture of consistency, fell apart like a youngster in his first big tournament and was eliminated, 2 and 1 by 39-year-old Joe Gagliardi of Mamaroneck, N. Y. This came shortly after McHale of the host Saucon Valley Country Club bowed out of the tourney.

Before the tumult and shouting was over these two had dimmed, bang, out went Chapman. British Amateur champion from Pinehurst, N. C.

Commandments Listed As Hunt Season Nears

COLUMBUS, O. Sept. 13 (UP)—Dr. Charles Dambach, director of the State Wildlife section, issued seven cardinal commandments today to hunters taking to the woods Saturday for the opening of the 1951 squirrel season.

- 1—Treat all guns as being loaded.
- 2—Put only empty guns taken down or with actions open into a car or home.
- 3—Always be sure the action and bore of a gun is clear of obstructions.
- 4—Always carry guns in a manner so that it points to the ground.
- 5—Always be sure of target.
- 6—Never climb trees or fences with a gun.
- 7—Don't mix powder and alcohol.

Dr. Dambach also advised hunters to wear bright colors and to display their 1951 licenses on their backs.

All games yesterday rained out. Games today: Kansas City at Milwaukee; Louisville at St. Paul.

The average Michigan State gridder this season is 20 years 4 months old, stands six feet tall and weighs 193 pounds.

Browns Face Rams Friday

CLEVELAND, Sept. 13 (AP)—The world champion Cleveland Browns play their first home game and last exhibition contest tomorrow night, and the question is: Will the Los Angeles Rams bounce?

The Rams lost an exhibition encounter with the Chicago Cardinals last Saturday night in Salt Lake City, 38-21, and Coach Joe Stydahar's team is expected to come bounding back from defeat.

The Browns did their bouncing after absorbing a 21-20 defeat at the hands of the Detroit Lions. They turned around and whipped the Chicago Bears 32-21, keeping their best players under wraps in the second half.

The Rams also have the incentive of inflicting revenge against the Browns for that 30-28 decision in the championship play-off last year.

Coach Paul Brown's principal problems for the affair in Cleveland stadium tomorrow night are injuries.

T-Quarterback Otto Graham and Halfback Dub Jones are ready, but Left Half Rex Bumgardner and two fullbacks, Marion Motley and Emerson Cole, are below par. Ken Carpenter looked good as Bumgardner's replacement against Chicago. Motley was used sparingly against the Bears, and still is bothered by water on the knees, but he presumably will start. Emerson Cole, before being sidelined with injuries, looked better than Motley. John Sandusky is expected to fill in at right tackle for Chubby Grigg.

Houtteman To Receive Discharge From Army

CAMP PICKETT, Va., Sept. 13 (UP)—Private First Class Art Houtteman, star Detroit tiger pitcher who was drafted into the Army late last year, will be handed a medical discharge this week.

Army officials disclosed yesterday that the right-hand strong-arm will be discharged for "disabilities existing prior to his entry into service."

Houtteman was admitted to the Camp Pickett Army Hospital on Aug. 1 for treatment of headaches which doctors said might be traced to injuries suffered in an automobile accident in the Spring of 1949.

Houtteman, 24, had a 19-12 record with the Tigers last season and was recognized as one of the best young pitchers in the majors.

Tulane's B football squad will play three games this season. They will meet Georgia Tech, Florida and Alabama.

High Schools Open '51 Grid Grind Friday

By FRITZ ROWELL

Columbus, O., Sept. 13 (AP)—Ohio opens its 1951 high school football season tomorrow.

Some 575 teams—20,000 youngsters—will be in the field. Attendance will soar into the millions. It's the Buckeye realm's biggest and colorful athletic show.

Before the curtain rises, we'd like to have our usual pre-season chat with the kids, the coaches and the fans and the officials. Just a sort of open letter to one and all, including your boy and mine.

There's not much to say to the players, except to pat 'em on the back. It takes nerve, and plenty of it, just to put on a uniform and get out there. Fans know little of the long practice grinds, the bumps and bruises absorbed, as the kids get set for the week end spectacles. There is nothing wrong with our boys, unless you think it's wrong to make an all-out effort in an intense desire to win.

To the coaches, we'd like to offer only the comment that to the players the coach is king, that he probably has as much influence over the future of a boy as the parents have, that it's his duty to teach hard, rugged, clean football and how to take both victory and defeat like men and gentlemen.

To the fans—both the booster club adults and the student bodies—we'd suggest they learn to take a loss with the same graciousness that they take victory, that they realize few teams and coaches win 'em all, that players must not be criticized for fumbling or missing a block or tackle, that youngsters have a lot of life to live after their playing days, and the lessons they learn in losing may help later in the grum game of life.

The biggest booster club function as we see it, is to make important things the kids do—win or lose. There is no finer investment a community can make than in the future of its own youth, and in all-time or uncalled for criticism might wreck that investment.

The fans must learn that dropping the big game, or having a poor won-lost season, is no excuse for firing a coach. Before jumping on the grid tutor, it might be well to have a chat with his players. He may not be a "win 'em all" coach, but there's a good chance the kids adore him and that he's the kind of guy you want to keep around your town.

To the officials, like the kids, we offer only a friendly pat and a suggestion that they go on calling them as they have been—impartial, and with absolutely no interest in who wins or loses.

And to everyone, let's remember that football is just a sport, a great training ground, and that for every winner there must be a loser. Of the 575 scholastic teams, probably no more than a dozen will go "clean"—and the chances are they can't do it again in 1952.

It might be well, as the season opens to remember the remark made by General Douglas MacArthur while he was superintendent at West Point: "Upon the fields of friendly strife are sown the seeds which, in other days on other fields, will bear the fruits of victory."

Women's U.S. Open Starts

ATLANTA, Sept. 13 (AP)—The girls in the plush field of golfers teeing off today in the National Open Tournament can't hit the ball as far as their male counterparts, but beginning today they will hit the ball a lot faster.

In an effort to speed up golf and give it a stronger gallery appeal, the National Open rules committee today banned all practice strokes on putting surfaces after a hole is completed.

Tournament officials estimate that rounds over the par 36-72 Druid Hills course will be covered in less than three hours instead of the four to four and a half hours required by men professionals and amateurs in such tournaments as the National Open and Amateur.

The committee also will invoke a seldom used rule which levies two strokes against a golfer not reporting promptly for rounds.

Babe Zaharias is the favorite here to win her third Open championship. Besides Mrs. Zaharias and Louise Suggs, former Open winners here are Patty Berg and Betty Jameson.

Dayton Nine Reaches Semi-Finals In NABF

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 13 (AP)—Dayton, O., which suffered its first defeat at the hands of Birmingham Ala., meets Cleveland this afternoon in the semi-finals of the National Amateur Baseball Federation Tournament.

Birmingham's semi-final opponent, tonight, will be Youngstown. Dayton had won four straight, but was subdued by Birmingham in the fifth round yesterday, 2-1, on a triple by Earl Baker in the sixth inning. Baker came home on an error.

Cleveland came through the fifth round by defeating Pontiac, Mich. 2-1, and last night Youngstown eliminated Detroit, 6-1.

The second defeat eliminates a team.

The differences between British and American golf rules next year will be reduced to one—the size of the ball. The USGA ball is 1.68 inches in diameter and the British ball 1.62 inches.

Renew Grid Relations With Cleveland Eleven

A spirited last-minute workout is in excellent spirits and in good condition for its opening season drills for the 1951 East Liverpool Potters who tangle with Cleveland West High Friday night at Patterson Field in the first of a 10-game schedule.

The 7:45 kickoff tomorrow night will find the two schools resuming grid relations after a lapse of nine years.

Tonight at 7:30 the Potters will be attired in full battle regalia, but work will be forgotten until Friday Head Coach Wade Watts will send his charges through a signal drill topped off with punting and kicking off.

Ed Oliver, 180-pound junior triple threat, has been assigned to do the punting with Irvin 'Tiny' Flint, 260-pound veteran tackle, kicking off.

Wednesday afternoon's session was similar, punting kicking off, passing and running back punts and kickoffs.

Coach Watts announced the squad:

Defensively, the line will show Perkins and either Jim Mitchell or Mickey White at ends, Flint and Davis, tackles, Pete White at guard with Oliver, Jenkins and Chadwick as linebackers, McCoy and Cooper as defensive halfbacks and Williams in safety position.

The line will average around 180 pounds with Flint playing, and the backs 170 for a team average of 175. Six of the starters are regulars from the 1950 eleven that won four and dropped five. They are Flint, Perkins, Chadwick, Cooper, Oliver and Jenkins.

Blue-White Club To Present School New Scoreboard

The new $2,000 electric scoreboard at Patterson Field will be turned over officially to the School Board in brief ceremonies before the East Liverpool-Cleveland West football game Friday night.

Harry McConville, president of the Blue & White Nonpareil Club, will make a short talk and then present the board to the school. O. E. Hall, president of the board, will accept the scoreboard on behalf of the school.

The club sponsored the board, and its purchase was made possible through a fund raising campaign held during the summer. Various events were held by the club to help raise funds.

The board, one the latest of its type will have a clock which shows each second the score, number of downs and the yards to gain. The numerals are in block letters two feet high.

A siren mounted on the pressbox will indicate the end of each quarter.

The board was erected in the South end of the field and the area around it has been landscaped.

Only 11 Turn Out For Defiance Team

DEFIANCE, O., Sept. 13 (AP)—The new coach appeared, the field was in shape, the uniforms ready and waiting—but only 11 men came out to fill them for the first football practice of the season at Defiance College.

Vic Rowen, former professional and collegiate football star, took over coaching duties at the school this week end.

Lopez And Stengel Now Predict Pennant For Their Clubs

Indians Hold Slim Lead As Play Resumes

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Managers Al Lopez of Cleveland and Casey Stengel of New York, recovered from Tuesday's ordeal at the hands of revenge-bent second divisioners, were beating their chests today and all but predicting the American League pennant.

Lopez, who spent yesterday's off-day playing 18 holes of golf, was especially confident as his Indians moved on to Washington for a night affair.

"Naturally, I hated to lose the second game in Philadelphia," he said. "But I'm not kicking. We're in first place and we all feel we're there to stay."

Stengel, who admitted the Yankees "were awful" in dropping both ends of a double-header to the tail-end Browns Tuesday, predicted his team would regain the lead.

The Yankees fell into second place when Cleveland split with the sixth place Athletics and took a full-game lead.

"We're not through by a long shot," Casey said. "We'll get back to the top. We came back before and we will do it again."

Stengel nominated Ed Lopat (19-7) to pitch against the Detroit Tigers this afternoon. He will be opposed by Virgil Trucks (9-8). Bob Lemon (17-11) will pitch for Cleveland against the Senators' Julio Moreno (4-10).

Lopat and Allie Reynolds are expected to face Lemon and Bob Feller when the Yankees and Indians tangle Sunday and Monday.

While the Indians and Yankees were taking things easy, Boston's third place Red Sox crept closer to the leaders, edging out the Tigers, 2-1. The triumph moved them to within 4 and a half games of the Tribe.

Bill Wight won the 10-inning hurling duel from Detroit's Ted Gray when Johnny Pesky slammed a one-out triple and scored the deciding run on Clyde Vollmer's long fly.

In the only other American League game, Chicago's White Sox blanked the Senators, 3-0. Billy Pierce stopped the Nats with six hits for his 13th victory. Orestes Minoza drove in two of the victors' runs.

The New York Giants' faint flag hopes were kept alive when Cincinnati cincinnati slapped a 6-3 defeat upon the National League leading Brooklyn Dodgers. The loss cut the Brooks' margin over the Giants to five and a half games.

The Giants were rained out of their scheduled game in St. Louis and will play the game off this afternoon. It is the final game of the year between the two clubs.

It took quite a bit of doing to arrange the game since the Cards previously had scheduled a game tonight against the Boston Braves.

As the situation now stands, the Cards will play the Giants in the afternoon and the Braves at night. League President Ford Frick gave the Cards permission to attempt this unprecedented day-and-night double-header against two different clubs.

Walker Cooper blasted homers Nos. 17 and 18 and batted in five runs to lead the Braves to a 7-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Ralph Kiner hammered his 39th home run and added two singles to account for four RBI's and lead the Pittsburgh Pirates to an 8-6 triumph over the Philadelphia Phils.

Lloyd Merriman's base-clearing triple in the seventh inning off Carl Erskine broke a 3-3 deadlock and gave Cincy's Ewell Blackwell his 15th triumph. Blackie replaced starter Kenny Raffensberger in the second and pitched two-hit ball in five and two-thirds innings.

Sugar Stops Turpin In 10th To Regain Middleweight Title

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson was middleweight champion of the world again today after having fought perhaps the greatest battle of his career in stopping Randy Turpin of England in the 10th round of a savage brawl at the Polo Grounds.

Two months and two days after he had lost the crown to the 23-year-old Briton in London, the pride of Harlem came back, bloody and tired, to unleash an onslaught which beat Turpin to the verge of insensibility and forced Referee Ruby Goldstein to spare the short-time titleholder further punishment with only eight seconds to go in the final, pulse-stirring round last night.

Robinson weighed 157½ pounds, to 159 for Turpin. The bout was scheduled for 15 rounds.

The contest attracted the largest crowd ever to witness a fight in this country outside the heavy-division—61,370.

When all of the returns are in, Robinson is expected to pick up about $240,000, his richest purse for his 30-minute workout, and Turpin about $200,000.

Turpin, a gamester and a very fine fighter, thought he should have been permitted to finish that final, desperate round, weather a few more of Sugar Ray's lethal bombs, take his rest and come out for the 11th round.

"I was perfectly keen," Turpin said. "There were only eight seconds to go in the round and I was covering up. I heard the count clearly and you notice I got up well before it was finished."

Robinson said he didn't want to take any chances with the referee stopping the fight after his left eye brow had been cut.

"It was do or die," said Sugar Ray, "he hurt me several times but not in the 10th."

But before disaster struck him, what a fight the young man from old England had put up.

Until that instant when he brought an earth-shaking blow from the great crowd by downing Turpin in the 10th, Sugar Ray had done no better in this reporter's opinion, than break even against

14 Theaters Filled In Fight Television

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—The exclusive theater-television broadcast of the Ray Robinson-Randy Turpin fight last night filled 14 movie houses in 11 cities with 35,000 fight fans—some of whom batted their own way into a Chicago film palace.

There was no radio or television from ringside. The promoters, the International Boxing Club, even banned round-by-round accounts of the contest.

Reception on the closed telecast circuit proved poor to excellent. Most of the movie houses doubled their prices, and ticket scalpers operated outside some of the theaters.

In Chicago, the fight fans turned fighters as they stampeded into the state lake loop theater. Angered at slow ticket taking or lack of tickets, an estimated 600 persons smashed a dozen glass doors to get inside the theater. At least 25 persons were cut by flying glass.

In Cleveland, the RKO Place was jammed with 3,800 fight fans.

the rugged, powerful young "booth fighter" from England's carnivals.

Turpin had started slowly and gradually had gathered his strength until, just before the end, it appeared he almost certainly would grind Robinson down. Going into the fatal 10th, he was jarring Robinson with his awkward, jumping left jab, making the Harlem hotshot wince with the force of his short blows in close. He was forcing the fight. Men around us were saying "goodbye Sugar."

Then, Turpin, slammed to the canvas by a right to the jaw, had fallen shakily to the count of nine, fallen into the nearest ropes, and taken a brutal beating. Robinson, blood streaming from a cut over his left eye, was trying with everything he had to finish his stubborn foe.

The avenging Sugar Ray, in his desperate haste, was missing some shots. Turpin was out on his leaden feet, his hands hanging helplessly at his side and only his fighter's brain ticking feebly.

Through the ninth round Goldstein had scored it 4-1. Judge Joe Agnello had put it down 5-4 Robinson, Judge Joseph Barnes 5-3-1 in Sugar Ray's favor. This scorer agreed exactly with Goldstein as that big 10th came around.

In the second round Robinson had sent Turpin to one knee momentarily with a right to the jaw. There was no time for a count before the Briton was up slugging away furiously, bounding after Sugar like a frolicsome pup, but with murder on his mind. Again in the third chapter Robinson had bounced Turpin against the ropes with a clean swipe, but it had only brought Randy back fighting the harder.

By the time the eighth round came around, Turpin plainly was beginning to take the ascendancy. His youth was beginning to pay the inevitable dividend. Robinson, 31, looked a little tired. Randy won the eighth by a fair margin, the ninth by a wider one. His expression never once changed except for an occasional grin at the break of a clinch.

Then came the 10th, and with one of the very first blows of the round Turpin slashed open an inch long cut over Robinson's left eye, right through the eye brow. It was the same wound Sugar had suffered in their original meeting in London.

In an instant the blood was flowing, and both men were glistening from their faces and down their chests. As Turpin bared in the thought occurred that Goldstein might have to stop the bout before long.

Robinson must have received the same shock, for he suddenly began to fight like a catamount. He must have realized he needed to do something quickly. He flew at Turpin, throwing both fists, and one clean shot struck the Briton against the ropes.

Randy recovered from that one, slipping a flurry of punches, and appeared to be on his way out of danger when the second degree charge landed, this time he hit the canvas, and from the time he wobbled to his feet until Goldstein took mercy on him, there was no doubt the title would not be going back to England.

Million Dollar Fight Shapes Up For '52

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—Another million dollar fight production was in the making today—Middleweight Champion Sugar Ray Robinson versus Rocky Graziano, the golden boy of the ring.

That's not expected to come off until next year, maybe February in Chicago. Randy Turpin, the strong 23-year-old Briton, will have to wait until June for another crack at the title he held for such a short time.

"Sure, I'll fight him anywhere, anytime, he's a great kid," said Robinson as he tried on his old crown for size. "Fighting is my business. I fought a better fight than I did in London—it was better because I won."

"I want to win back the title," said Turpin. "And then retire in September of 1952. I shall have had enough of it by then. After all I've been boxing since I was eight."

Robinson said he would like to see Turpin fight him again.

Vets' Exhibit To Show Giant Pacific Rats

Live specimens of giant rats which plagued servicemen on the Caroline atolls during World War Two will be exhibited in a mobile trailer Friday and Saturday in the Diamond.

Sponsored by Private Eddy Post 66, Veterans of Foreign Wars, proceeds will be used for welfare work. There is no admission charge. The exhibit will be open from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Notorious for raids on mess halls, some of the rats measure three feet from head to tail, have one return trip home.

and a half inch teeth, and weigh 12 to 14 pounds.

William Barlow and Charles Cunningham, war veterans traveling with the exhibit, will give continuous lectures.

Wrong-Way Banbow

GAIION, O., Sept. 13 (UP)—Paul Banbow of San Francisco stopped at the automobile club here today to check his road map. It was found that Banbow, misinterpreting directions marked by the Chicago A.A.A., had traveled 300 miles east instead of west on his return trip home.

Debate Clamp May Speed Up Military Bill

Senate Leaders Feel Sure They Can Pass 61 Billions Today

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—Senate leaders, for the fourth straight day, expressed confidence they will push through today a $61,103,856,030 defense money bill.

The other three days they failed, but this time they have a limit on debate to help them.

After some haggling over the time limits, Democratic Leader McFarland of Arizona induced his colleagues to hold talk about each amendment to 30 minutes and wind-up debate on the bill itself to two hours.

Some restrictions were added to the big money bill yesterday. It still retains, however, a special $5,000,000 for added new air power.

Besides carrying funds to build up the strength of the armed forces as a deterrent to possible Communist aggression, the measure would provide money for new secret weapons which President Truman has called "fantastic."

Outside the Senate chamber, Senator McMahon (D) of Connecticut, chairman of the Senate-House atomic energy committee, told reporters yesterday the destructive power of America's atomic weapons now is "truly fantastic." He ducked questions on details or possible uses.

Biggest argument over the money bill came on an attempt by Senator Thye (R) of Minnesota to set up a special "watchdog committee," under the appropriations committee, to hunt for waste in the Army, Navy and Air Force.

That appeared to be stepping on the toes of the Senate armed services subcommittee on preparedness, headed by Senator Johnson (D) of Texas. Thye insisted that was not his idea and there is plenty of room for both.

Court Throws Out Wrapping Paper Will For $375,164

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13 (AP)—A will ascribed to the late Charles Babonet, oil-rich eccentric, which left most of a $375,164 estate to William O. Tyson and his family has been rejected by Superior Court.

The court ruled yesterday that the will, penciled on butcher's wrapping paper, was not written, signed or dated in the handwriting of Babonet, who died Aug. 7, 1950, at 66.

The will, slipped under the door of a downtown Los Angeles bank, was one of three offered for probate. It bequeathed $20,000 to Tyson, a carpenter, $60,000 to his wife Pearl and $20,000 to their daughter, Mrs. Melissa C. Carter of Whittier, Calif.

The will mentioned an outing 30 years ago on the beach, Babonet purportedly saying he had "the happiest time of my life" after being picked up by the Tysons in their automobile. The Tysons were living then in Denver, but were vacationing here.

Tyson offered no protest to the court ruling yesterday, but said he believes he will be able to produce "the person who wrote this will for Mr. Babonet."

Judge Victor R. Hansen told Tyson that even if he could prove Babonet dictated the will it could not be admitted to probate because there was no signature of a witness.

In the absence of a valid will, Babonet's estate will be distributed among four nieces and two nephews, all residing in Austria, with the exception of Rev. Josef Stimmler, a missionary in New Guinea.

The court rejected also a second purported will mailed anonymously from Denver, its provisions incoherent. No one appeared to urge its acceptance.

A third document leaving the entire estate to one Albert J. Todd, who claims to be Babonet's former mining partner, is still before the court.

Example For Chester Seen In Salem Project

Of interest to Chester was an announcement in Washington today that an allocation for steel and copper for an addition to a Salem grade school may be approved next month.

The Hancock County Board of Education Monday night awarded $216,000 in contracts for a six-room addition to Chester High School—subject to clearance for scarce materials.

Salem made application in June and Superintendent Kerr followed-up with a trip to Washington Aug. 9 and is to make a second for a conference with government authorities.

Salem asked for 25 tons of critical materials to be used for an addition containing lunch, assembly and Physical Education rooms. An Office of Education official in Washington said the allocation will be for use in the first quarter of 1952.

Man's A Stay-Near-Home, Doctor's Survey Indicates

Man, the vaunted traveler, is as many kinds of living things. Dr. Davis studied the home range of turtles, monkeys and other animals. He really doesn't go very far from home in his normal day. Most of his trips are short ones, just like the travels of animals, Dr. David E. Davis of the Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health at Baltimore declared today.

People travel mostly to stores, to work, to visit. How far an animal or bird usually ranges from home is known as its home range.

The home range is known for mean distance of a round trip was just under three miles.

Plotting the trips on a graph gave a curve, based on how frequently people went different distances.

This curve is shaped exactly like the curve for the travels of mice or monkeys or other animals, Dr. Davis said. More of them make short trips than long trips.

For the mouse foraging for food, the distance of a short trip might be measured in feet. For the housewife, it might be two or three miles. The study covered only week-day travel. But even if week-end trips were included, it wouldn't affect the curve much, Dr. Davis said.

Two one-pound jars of ravioli will serve five people.

New Treatment Helps Ease Stubborn Arthritis Of Aged

By The Associated Press
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 13 — A new treatment for the stubborn arthritis of old people—against which even cortisone has had little effect—was announced yesterday by a Brooklyn doctor.

Dr. W. S. Collins told the second international Gerontological Congress the substance—an extract derived from the liver of pregnant cows—is still experimental and not yet available for general use.

But he declared it appears to be capable of bringing relief of pain and stiffness and restoring normal joint movement in many cases of the ailment known as hypertrophic osteoarthritis.

He said the substance first was developed in his laboratories as a possible material for the control of a painful neuritic condition which sometimes occurs as a complication of diabetes.

It proved more effective against that condition than anything previously tried, he explained, adding that by a "happy accident" he and his colleagues got a lead on its possible use against osteoarthritis.

The tip developed from the alertness of a woman diabetic who reported that while being treated for the neuritic complication of that disease she had obtained relief from a long-standing joint limitation in her right hand. The doctors determined that she had been suffering from osteoarthritis.

Osteoarthritis, which affects six million of the nation's estimated seven million arthritis sufferers, is a degenerative type which occurs principally in elderly people.

It is marked by bony deposits in the joints, producing marked disability.

It is distinguished from rheumatoid arthritis in which there is an actual destruction of the joints. The possible use against osteoarthritis rheumatoid type principally affects younger people, but the drug cortisone has demonstrated great promise in its control.

Cortisone, however, so far has shown little effect on osteoarthritis. Conversely, Dr. Collins reported, the newly-developed extract has no apparent effect on the rheumatoid type.

The new substance has been demonstrated to have no undesirable side effect, he said.

Boyle Assails Loyalty Slaps At Candidates

Calls On Congress To Stamp Out New 'Poison' Technique

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—William M. Boyle Jr. today urged Congress to outlaw the technique of completely baseless and defamatory attacks on individuals which go beyond the bounds of campaigning in political contests.

Declaring that American campaigns never have been noted for politeness and the use of the kid glove, the chairman of the Democratic national committee added:

"And this new technique which is used to attack the loyalty and patriotism of decent citizens and faithful public servants is not in the American tradition. It is an imported technique which already has begun to poison our political life. It must be stamped out."

Boyle's proposal was in a statement prepared for a hearing before a Senate elections subcommittee headed by Senator Gillette (D. of Iowa).

At the same time another Senate investigating subcommittee began looking into charges—denied by Boyle—that his political influence may have figured in Reconstruction Finance Corp. loans.

Boyle offered Gillette's group full co-operation of the Democratic committee in studying possible steps which can be taken to strengthen our federal election laws and to prevent the type of corruption of the elective process which members of both parties agree has occurred in recent elections.

The Democratic party leadership Boyle declared is opposed to the back street type of campaign recently exposed and properly condemned by this election committee.

The committee recently put out a report criticizing sharply some aspects of the 1950 Maryland senatorial campaign in which Republican John Marshall Butler defeated Democrat Millard E. Tydings for reelection.

For committee consideration in the problems of improving our election laws, Boyle suggested:

Extending such laws to cover primary or convention campaigns; realistic adjustments of the ceilings on campaign contributions and expenditures; new methods of financing campaigns; free television time—on proposed education channels—to allow federal office candidates to discuss campaign issues fully; establishment of campaign standards; to make the candidate responsible for the actions of his aides; laws requiring campaign literature recordings film and so on to show completely their sponsorship who paid for them and who printed or produced them.

Bricker Tells Bliss That He'll Run Again

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (INS)—John W. Bricker, Ohio's junior Republican senator, formally has announced his intention to seek another six-year term in 1952.

Bricker made the disclosure at a luncheon yesterday in Washington with Senator Robert A. Taft and Republican State Chairman Ray C. Bliss. Bliss was in Washington to discuss 1952 campaign plans with the two Ohio senators and a 15 member Republican delegation.

Taft endorsed Bricker's candidacy, declaring he was delighted that his colleague had decided to run for reelection.

Some observers have pointed at O.P.S. Director Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo as Bricker's most likely opponent.

First Receipts $594

In College Fund Drive

Early contributions in the 1951 Steubenville-Weirton district Negro College Fund campaign received by mail the first days of the drive totaled $594.50. The quota is $7,000. The initial contributions came from East Liverpool, Chester, Newell, New Cumberland, Weirton, Steubenville, Follansbee, Wellsburg and Carnegie.

Response to 15,000 letters recently mailed from the campaign headquarters is expected to boost the drive this week end.

The New Hebrides Islands are administered jointly by Britain and France.

Here Is A New Approach To Fresh Peach Pie

It's the approach that makes the difference. A new twist can easily add glamor to old favorites and nobody will turn down the same old thing if you use your imagination and come up with a new idea. And when the old favorites are peaches and they turn up in a pie made up of rich delicious conky dough it's like finding pearls in oysters.

FRESH PEACH PIE
1 pkg. layer cake mix
5 T milk
6.8 fresh peaches
1/2 cup apricot or peach jam
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 T sugar

Blend layer cake mix with milk to form a stiff dough. Roll out on lightly floured board. Line into a deep 10 inch pie plate which has been greased keeping edge of dough about 1/2 inch from edge of plate (mixture rises slightly in the oven). Pierce bottom of pie with tines of a fork and bake in a moderate oven (375 F) 25-30 minutes or until golden brown. Cool. Fill with fresh peaches peeled and sliced. Melt apricot or peach jam in heavy pan. Allow to cool a little, then brush over peach slices. Garnish with whipped cream sweetened with 3 table-spoons sugar.

Trailer Damaged

By Fire From Grease

A house trailer owned by J. W. Roberts was damaged Wednesday afternoon when grease splashed on a kitchen stove and caught fire. Firemen reported.

The blaze was confined to the kitchen compartment of the trailer parked in a trailer camp at the rear of the East End Station. Firemen were called at 5:15 p. m.

The department was summoned at 6:50 p. m. to quell a rubbish fire near the new building of the Duquesne Distributing Co. on Dresden Ave.

In three miscellaneous calls, firemen washed broken glass off the Memorial Auditorium parking lot, filled a cistern at the home of Raymond Rambo near Hoppel's Corners and flushed gasoline in the 400 block of East Fourth St.

New Biology Head

U.N. Boosts Moscow Dues

U.S. Assessment Cut By Committee

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. Sept. 13 (AP)—Moscow will have to pay thousands of dollars more for the privilege of making speeches in the U.N. next year, if the U.N. committee on contributions has its way.

The committee in a report made public here yesterday, slapped an increase of almost 41 per cent on the Soviet Union dues for the next year and cut the United States assessment more than 5 per cent.

If the assembly meeting in Paris Nov. 6 approves the new scale of contributions—and it usually does—the Russians will pay more than 9 per cent of the total cost of the U.N. and the Americans will be cut to slightly more than 36 per cent.

The reduction for the United States was approved over the bitter protests of A. A. Soldatov, Soviet member of the committee, who said that the U.S. really ought to pay 50 per cent of the entire bill since its economy is in such good shape.

The new scale is in line with opinions voiced by Congress in Washington where a move has been started to limit the U.S. contribution to one-third of the cost.

Every member of the so-called Big Five was given a reduction except the Russians. Secretary-General Trygve Lie has proposed a net budget of $40,756,200 for 1952, a reduction from the net budget of $42,898,520 for this year.

Charity Bingo Halted

RAVENNA O. Sept. 13 (AP)—After being allowed to operate a week charity bingo at the CIO hall here has been ordered halted. City Solicitor George McClelland said permission to hold the games was rescinded because the Immaculate Conception Church listed as the sponsor was not receiving all the profits.

Plane Speeds Road Surveys

Highway Department Takes To Ohio Skies

COLUMBUS, Sept. 13 (AP) — The Highway Department has taken to the skies to improve Ohio's roadways.

Use of the department's plane has been stepped up because of recent success in plotting the route for the proposed 300-million-dollar turnpike across northern Ohio.

Director T. J. Kauer said that project brought extensive use of the plane to obtain aerial maps for the department. Along with the increased use of air photos, the department has expanded its photographic laboratories, where the negatives are turned into maps, Kauer explained.

The department has a twin-engine Beechcraft—a converted Army plane. Currently it is being used to survey U. S. Route 42, a direct road between Cincinnati and Cleveland. The results of the survey will serve as a guide for relocation and widening of the route in some places.

The department has hopes for making the road a four-lane divided highway.

Kauer said the greatest problems at present are two-lane highways and congestion in cities.

Surveys are under way in Columbus, Zanesville, Mansfield and Steubenville in an attempt to ease traffic congestion.

Allies Plan To Return Property To Japanese

TOKYO, Sept. 13 (AP) — A plan under which Japanese property held by the occupation eventually will be turned back to its owners is being drafted by General Matthew B. Ridgway's aides.

Three western-style apartment-hotel buildings with more than 100 beds are scheduled to revert to Japanese control before Oct. 1.

Such modern office buildings as the Dai Ichi, which serves as Ridgway's headquarters, probably will be among the last given up.

Benjamin Franklin was the publisher of the Philadelphia Zeitung, which in 1732 was the first foreign-language newspaper in the American colonies.

Children Help Out

NEWBURGH, N. Y. — Five children raised $42.15 for Midwest flood relief by staging a "carnival" at which they charged two cents admission. The children turned the money over to the Red Cross.

Played It Safe

SOUTH PORTLAND, Me.—Firemen used extreme precautions when a railroad tie caught fire beneath a petroleum tank car. After the blaze was out, they discovered the tank car was empty.

Next 2 Months To Be Critical, Steel Warned

Iron Age Sees Cut In Production Unless Scrap Pile Grows

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 — Unless scrap collections improve the steel industry may have to curb its record-shattering production pace, Iron Age metalworking trade weekly, said today.

The next two months will be critical, the publication declared. "All efforts to build vital inventories have failed," it reported. "There is no assurance that steel-makers will be able to continue near-capacity steelmaking operations even until cold weather. Many of them are living hand-to-mouth right now—operating right out of cars."

Iron Age pointed out that scrap is seasonal, that "inventories are normally accumulated during the summer, to be used during winter months when adverse weather restricts collections."

But inventories now are just about holding their own the trade weekly reported.

It said National Production Authority allocation of scrap to mills faced with the prospect of shutting down furnaces has helped keep vital defense production going "but it hasn't found, collected or moved more scrap to the mills."

That is the purpose, said Iron Age, of the present gigantic scrap drive engaged in by steel producers and consumers scrap people and government officials.

"Hope that steel order cancellations would help clear up the fourth quarter log jam appears to be a forlorn one," the publication commented. "One producer reported that so far cancellations total less than 1,000 tons—not enough to open up mill space for controlled materials plan tickets looking for a home."

"This is putting producers in something of a spot with consumers who are being told by Washington officials to check with mills for space created by cancellation of duplicate orders."

Steelmaking operations this week were placed at 100 per cent of rated capacity, up a point from last week's revised rate.

Judge Apologizes For $20 Fine He Slaps On Melchior

TALLAHASSEE Fla. Sept. 13 — A federal judge apologized yesterday to opera singer Lauritz Melchior for having to fine him $20 for accepting southern hospitality and taking too many gift geese back north.

Melchior was not present. He had offered no defense to the charge of possessing and transporting more Canada geese than the law allows. He had agreed through his attorney to accept any sentence the court imposed.

U. S. District Judge Dozier Devane heard testimony that Melchior here for a concert at Florida State University last winter went hunting with four local residents. He killed one goose. The other four killed five altogether. None killed more than the legal limit.

When the singer left, the other four gave him their geese. He packed the birds in dry ice and took them with him on the plane to New York. The testimony was that none of them knew it was illegal to have or transport more than two Canada geese at a time.

Judge Devane said he hated to impose a penalty on a man who had accepted southern hospitality.

However he said there had been a technical violation of the law and he felt he must impose fines of $10 on each of the two counts—one for possession and one for transportation.

Court attaches said the complaint against Melchior didn't arise in Florida but came after northern papers published an interview with Melchior.

Color TV Receivers

Roll Off Assembly Line

NEW YORK Sept. 13 — The first mass-produced color TV receiving sets are rolling off the assembly line at CBS—Columbia Inc.—manufacturing subsidiary of the Columbia Broadcasting System—now in production and en route to CBS-Columbia distributors is the CBS-Columbia Model 12CC2, a console receiver with half door listing at $499.95 plus tax. It can receive both black-and-white and color.

CBS whose color system has been approved by the Federal Communications Commission began commercially-sponsored TV colorcasts in June.

Guitarist Will Perform

At Power Point Church

POWER POINT Sept. 13 (Special)—A program of special music featuring a Hollywood guitarist will be presented Monday night at 7:30 in the Church of the Nazarene.

He is Sol Hoopii, a native of Hawaii, who will be accompanied by Ray Odegard pianist and trumpeter. Hoopii spent 18 years in the movies and with Odegard are radio and recording artists. As converts, they will give testimony.

Allies Ready Clothing For Korean Winter

Don't Intend To Be Caught Napping As They Were In 1950

KOREA, Sept. 13 (AP)—Allied fighting men are readying defenses against their second bitterest foe in Korea—the frigid winter which is just a few months away.

Already there is a touch of coolness in the night air and the supply channels are full of warm winter clothing. Lack of such clothing last year cost heavily when frostbite and the Chinese struck almost tanuously. Then the Eighth Army was moving toward the Yalu River of North Korea. Supply roads were narrow and strained. Ammunition, gasoline and food had to go up. Winter clothing trickled forward.

This year the roads are ample. A daily stream of trucks already is carrying the first issue of winter clothing to front-line divisions.

When winter strikes, the United Nations troops will be as ready for it as they are now for the Communists.

The Army is providing clothes for all its divisions and most of the United Nations troops fighting in Korea.

The First Marine Division will use mostly Army gear, but will try some new wrinkles of its own. The British commonwealth division will be provided with its own clothing. But here too the Army is ready to fill any need.

One thing is certain. The troops will be amply clothed in plenty of time.

The Eighth Army G-4 (supply) officer, Colonel Albert K. Stebbins, says most of the equipment will be the same as last year's "but we're going to get it all up to them on time this year."

The winter clothing will be issued in three phases, until Nov. 1 the infantryman will be ready for the bitterest weather.

The schedule calls for the front-line troops to be provided with woolen undershirts, two blankets, a field jacket, wool-lined leather gloves and a waterproof clothing bag by Sept. 15. Some troops already have received the first issue.

By Oct. 1, the infantrymen will have wool trousers, sweaters, flannel shirts, long underwear and a hood to their field jackets.

By Nov. 1, when every soldier should be outfitted, the Army will have issued every man a feather-packed, mountain-type sleeping bag, a pile liner for his jacket, a parka-type overcoat, woolen socks and muffs and either the Arctic over-shoes or rubber-bottomed, leather-topped shoes.

The Marines are experimenting with their own type of winter foot-gear—an insulated rubber field boot.

The Army model has been criticized as non-porous. Its felt lining sometimes becomes wet with perspiration and in bitter cold weather this can freeze. Thus the front-line soldier often carried a spare felt inner sole next to his body to keep it dry and changed as often as he got a chance.

The Marines hope their new boot will keep their feet both warm and dry.

New Type Of Leaf Doctoring Keeps Plants, Trees Healthy

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 13 (AP)—A new kind of doctoring is coming into the soil. It resembles giving plants and trees to keep them healthy, producing more food and flowers.

It's done through their leaves. It's something like blood tests and vitamin pills for humans.

The leaves of plants are checked chemically to learn why they're sick or if they're getting sick. This can spot sicknesses due to lack of some plant food, as blood tests spot human ills due to lack of the right foods.

Then the missing foods sometimes can be sprayed right into the leaves, instead of putting them

Fertilizer Application, composed of experts in many fields, held jointly with the American Society for Horticultural Science, a member of the A.I.B.S.

The new approach is "one of the most interesting and important developments in horticulture," said Dr. F. S. Howlett, chairman of horticulture and forestry at Ohio State University and secretary-treasurer of the horticultural society.

In diagnosis, leaves are analyzed chemically to learn how much nitrogen, phosphorous, zinc, boron, iron or other things they contain.

For health, the plants need what they lack. Sometimes the missing foods can be supplied quickly and efficiently by spraying them on the leaves. This has been done with nitrogen, boron and zinc and other chemicals for some kinds of plants.

She's Good Cook, President Says Of Singing Daughter

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—President Truman confided yesterday that Margaret is a "good cook" although "I can't say that she likes to cook as well as she likes to sing."

This information was imparted by the President during a talk to a delegation representing the National Citizens' Committee for United Nations Day.

The committee presented Truman with a cake, made with Mrs. Truman's own recipe—one of the recipes included in the United Nations Cookbook. The President also received a copy of the cookbook. "I long ago quit talking about mama's cooking, because I have a good cook at home," the President told the group.

"And she also has made a good cook out of the musician who is our daughter. She can cook, too. I can't say she likes to cook as well as she likes to sing, but then she is able to do it."

"And on my advice, I hope every young lady in the United States will learn to make cakes like this."

The delegation, headed by W. W. Waymack, former member of the Atomic Energy Commission, called on the President to help dramatize plans for the observance of Oct. 24 as United Nations Day. The President issued a proclamation calling on all citizens to help observe the occasion.

Pole Answer To 'Voice' Slain In Apartment

WARSAW, Sept. 13 (AP)—Stefan Hartyka Martyka, star commentator on a Polish domestic radio program, was "foully murdered" Sunday by "secret Fascist brigands," the Polish press said yesterday.

Martyka, a producer and artist, was the principal voice on "Wave-length 49," whose main function is to counteract the B.B.C. and the Voice of America. The Polish press said he answered "imperialist warmonger propaganda" and dealt with internal anti-government rumors. He was a member of the Polish United Workers (Communist) party.

The official press merely announced that Martyka was shot fatally. Current reports in Warsaw said two unidentified members of the underground entered Martyka's apartment and fired several shots into his body.

The press characterized the murder as indicating "the hideous character of those who want to hamper by terrorism the magnificent general development of the people's Poland."

West Virginia Group To Aid Servicemen

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 13 (AP)—The United Defense Fund Committee of West Virginia was organized here Tuesday. Thomas B. Jackson, Charleston attorney, was named chairman.

The organization is designed to provide services to members of the armed forces and their families similar to those of the U.S.O. A goal of $100,000 was set as West Virginia's contribution to the fund.

Charles W. Rogers, also of Charleston, was elected secretary. An executive committee of 18 persons will be chosen to direct the group's activities.

Science Can't Duplicate Them

Human Factories Turn Out Vital Blood

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter
NEW YORK Sept. 13 — The United States has 150 million factories daily producing the greatest single life-saving medicine known to science.
The medicine is human blood and plasma made from it. Chemical science can't duplicate it. The only source is donations, a pint at a time from the human factories.
It can work miracles.
In Korea, corpsmen thought the young infantryman was dead. He had no pulse, but there was a flicker of life. Within eight hours, he got 20 pints of whole blood. He is now convalescing in a hospital on Okinawa, bolstered by a total of 42 pints of blood.
A NAVAL flier pulled from burning wreckage is on the mend at Oak Knoll Naval Hospital near San Francisco. He got 37 pints of whole blood, plus eight pints of plasma.
Blood and plasma sent from home 'probably have saved three quarters of the wounded right here on this battlefield', a soldier wrote to his sister after an enemy barrage had ripped American positions.
In World War One, when blood transfusions first were being tried, 8 to 11 out of every 100 wounded men reaching the most forward hospitals died of their wounds.
In World War Two, the rate was reduced to 4%. In Korea, it has been only 2%.
Americans donated 13,326,242 pints of blood during World War of cities. Two For the fallen in Korea, they Hundreds of thousands of pints, have donated—and quickly made of blood or plasma would be needed in since he was 6 weeks old.

again in their own bodies—thou to treat casualties in an average-sized city just in the first week after a bombing.
Civilian defense units already are starting to build up plasma reserves to save the wounded on the home front.
When the going has been tough blood collections have been good. The Defense Department declared. When the United Nations has had the upper hand, collections have been well below normal.
Donations dropped to one third of the need when peace talks began in Kaesong.
A supply of whole blood—refrigerated and flown directly to Korea—has been a lifesaver. Doctors are now con- sidering an immediate con- tinuing problem.
NOW THE Defense Department warns of an equally serious short- age in its reserve of plasma. From World War Two, it had some plas- ma—which can be stored almost indefinitely—in reserve as medi- cine in event of full-blown war.
This reserve has been 'gravely depleted' by the necessity of using so much of it in Korea. Doctors casualty needs four pints of whole blood and two pints of plasma.
All the blood for military needs and much of it for civilians at home has been gathered through the national blood program of the American Red Cross and commu- nity blood banks. This program covers an integrated system of 41 Red Cross regional centers and 12 community banks.
Now there's another big demand for blood—the threat of atom bomb- ing of cities.
Hundreds of thousands of pints, of blood or plasma would be needed in since he was 6 weeks old.

Gambling To Be Aired In Steubenville Talk

COLUMBUS Sept. 13 (AP)—A Woldman state industrial relations director will discuss Ohio's cam- paign against gambling when he addresses the Steubenville B na- B rith next Tuesday.
Woldman said he will denounce efforts of Congress to tax gamblers as a surrender to the racketeers.
Woldman told newsmen that such plans follow the policy of if you can't beat them join them because they mean if you can't beat them tax them.
Woldman's department has been used by Governor Frank J. Lausche in his campaign against large gam- bling casinos. Several places were cited for not meeting department regulations.

Cat Makes One Life Go Quite A Long Way

MOBILE Ala. (UP)—Pedegree a feline of indeterminate ancestry, may not have nine lives, but he has made one go a long way.
The cat belonging to the John O'Connor family, is 19 or maybe 20 years of age almost twice the normal span of life for a cat.
He has been in the O'Connor fam- ily since he was 6 weeks old.

A real "WAKE-UP" breakfast treat!

'Excuse My Dust'*Cars Chug Toward Buffalo On Fourth Leg Of Race

CLEVELAND, Sept. 13 (AP)—Two tomorrow it's going to be different. He had to change tires twice on about the time the first world war broke out in Europe headed to Buffalo today on the fourth leg of their Chicago-New York race.

Jack Brause, 76, driving a 1913 Stanley Steamer, is 45 minutes behind in elapsed time since leaving Chicago. But he exuded confidence as he sipped a beer after arriving last night.

"From here on, just excuse my dust," he grinned to reporters. "I can pull off to a service station anywhere and get welding equipment to fix this job myself." Brause's boiler kicked up a fuss this morning.

"I won't see him again till we get to New York," Rube De Launty is the other contestant in the race to see who can win—and is the best car. He is a 1911 and his "hot rod" job is a 1911 Stoddard Dayton.

He has an elapsed time of 22 hours and 31 minutes for the 448.9 miles from Chicago to Cleveland. It has taken Brause 23 hours and 16 minutes.

De Launty lost 50 minutes to his opponent, mainly because of route as the two oldtimers rode tire trouble, on the 170-mile trip into Cleveland. Sirens of police here from Detroit. It took the two escorts drowned out the vehicles' shade under 12 hours to cover the distance.

"Shucks, tire trouble can happen 191 miles away, tonight and New to anybody," De Launty said. "To New York Sunday or Monday."

Vast Money Ring Aiding Red China Smashed By U.S.

HONOLULU, Sept. 13 (AP)—American postal authorities have smashed a fantastic black market money ring that diverted 32 million dollars in American dollars to Communist China for the purchase of war-scarce materials.

Federal Postal Inspector R. Frank Ogden of Honolulu worked undercover for eight months in the Orient to expose the complicated financial operation.

A veteran of 24 years in the postal service, he trapped a counterfeiting gang in Manila by ordering 500 fake money orders.

Ogden said the money juggling scheme was the largest in post office history.

The ring worked with U.S. postal money orders, federal checks and military payment certificates. The money orders were altered upwards, and later counterfeited. Signatures on treasury checks and certificates were forged.

Ogden said Chinese Red agents brought the money orders outside post offices in Manila at a 5 percent markup. They stood the expense in Filipino pesos to get the more valuable American dollars without which they were unable to get the goods they wanted.

On the counterfeit money orders, Ogden said Hong Kong banks stood most of the loss. He said the U.S. government didn't lose a penny.

Military payment certificates which could not be spent on the open market were converted to money orders. Filipino wives of American soldiers were bribed to buy the money orders made out to their husbands. The signatures of the husbands were forged and the money orders. Filipino wives of American soldiers in Hong Kong banks.

The U.S. government halted the plot last Jan. 31 by eliminating the postal money order business between the U.S. and the Philippines.

Pastors At Lisbon Elect New Officers

LISBON, Sept. 13 (Special)—The Lisbon Ministerial Association elected Rev. J. G. Waelde of the Methodist Church as president at a reorganization meeting Tuesday night.

He succeeds C. W. Houston, pastor of the First Christian Church. Other new officers are Rev. E. D. Fager of St. Jacob's Reformed Church, vice-president, and Rev. Carleton Jones of the Nazarene Church, secretary-treasurer.

Rev. Jones was named to preach at the annual union Thanksgiving service Nov. 22 at 8:30 a.m. in the Methodist Church.

$100,000 JOB. There seems no doubt that G. Keith Fannston, 49, likes his new job as he sits at his desk as president of the New York Stock exchange. Previously he was president of Trinity College, at Hartford, Conn. The exchange presidency pays $100,000 a year.

TO THINK, MR. MUFFIN, THAT YOU—THE PRESIDENT OF A BUTTON FACTORY—WOULD TAKE PART IN OUR PLAY! I THINK IT'S TOO ADVENTUROUS FOR WORDS.

JUST CALL ME DUDLEY.

LOOK, IF THAT SO-AND-DO FUDDY DUDDY THINKS HE CAN STEAL MY GIRL...

SHUT UP OR YOU'RE FIRED, YOU IDIOT! IT'S HIS MONEY THAT'S KEEPING THE SHOW GOING.

10:30 THAT NIGHT

OH, DEAR! I DON'T DARE FACE DIANNA. I NEVER STAYED OUT SO LATE. PERHAPS I CAN TELL HER I FELL ASLEEP ON THIS BENCH. IF I CAN ONLY FALL ASLEEP.

STEVE CANYON

HERE IS MAJOR CANYON WITH THE DAY'S OPERATIONAL REPORTS...

YOU'LL EXCUSE US, PLEASE, DELTA...

SOME OF YOUR PILOTS SEEM TO LIKE MY COMPANY, EVEN IF YOU AND MAJOR CANYON DON'T!

WHAT DO YOU MEAN?

A COUPLE OF YOUR FIGHTER PLANES SERENADED ME WHILE I WAS TAKING A SUN BATH TODAY!

THEY WHAT?

MAJOR CANYON, I WANT LIEUT. BUCKET AND FITZ TO PUT ON FULL FLYING EQUIPMENT...PARACHUTES, LIFE VESTS, OXYGEN MASKS AND GOGGLES—AND STAND BY FOR BRIEFING...I AM SENDING THEM ON A VERY SPECIAL MISSION.

SECRET AGENT

AS JAGGED STREAKS OF LIGHTNING RIP THE BOTTOMS FROM THE CLOUDS—ON A CAMP PORCH...

VIOLENCE! GLORIOUS, UNCHECKED VIOLENCE! AND YET—SO FUTILE! SO MISSENT!

VIOLENCE IS MY BUSINESS, ALSO, BUT IN A Milder FORM—I PREFER TO CREATE VIOLENCE IN MEN'S MINDS—AND IN THEIR HEARTS!

MEANWHILE, PHIL AND WILDA...

I LIKE MY ELECTRICITY IN WIRES! LET'S GET ASHORE, BEFORE THIS OUTBOARD MOTOR DRAWS A BOLT!

THERE'S A CAMP IN THAT BAY, PHIL!

RIP KIRBY

George Yadsen confesses that I killed Philip (Kirk) Under, otherwise known as "The Cheat You." My motive was revenge. He framed me for a crime I did not commit.

MY SISTER, LEILA STAFFORD, IS ENTIRELY INNOCENT OF THE KILLING. SHE KNEW NOTHING OF MY PLANS. I AM MAKING THIS CONFESSION OF MY OWN FREE WILL...

NOW, MR. KIRBY, YOU WILL WITNESS MY SIGNATURE.

WRITE DOWN WHAT I TELL YOU, MR. KIRBY.

OKAY... I'M LISTENING...

GASOLINE ALLEY

His name is Flask, Phyllis, and he really has a fireproofing compound. Will it work on your wastebaskets? Wait!

It surely does, and we're trying to sign him up for the commercial rights.

Then, you can fireproof and sell all the baskets you have stored away.

Goody! We're going to be rich after all!

JOE PALOOKA

CANON, THINK... THINK, ENOCH.

I CAN'T REMEMBER. I TRIED HARD.

I'LL BE RUINED. JUST TRY AN REMEMBER THE FORMULA VA FERROT WHICH MADE HAR GROW. I DON'T WANT TO TRY ONE THAT CLEANS LAUNDRY.

I JUST CAN'T REMEMBER. I'M SO SORRY.

I'M RUINED—RUINED?

WHY, MISTER WALSH, BRAMBLEBERRY'S THE FIRST SCUBA SOAP IN THE WORLD! WHY DON'T YOU WORK ON THAT PREMISE?

Lovett Moves Toward Goals Without Fuss

New Defense Chief Builds Sound Record In Washington Posts

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—Robert A. Lovett, new secretary of defense, is an old hand in the government, with a reputation for getting things done quickly with little fuss.

He earned that record over a 10-year span as assistant secretary of war for air, as undersecretary of state and as deputy secretary of defense. In between stints in the government, he was a New York investment banker.

In all his government posts, Lovett served with General George C. Marshall—the man he was chosen to succeed as head of the defense establishment.

The new post will be a birthday gift for Lovett. He will be 56 Friday.

Lovett is tall, lean and bald, pleasant and friendly despite his record as a hard-working, efficient administrator.

The late President Roosevelt tapped him in 1940 for the job as assistant secretary of war for aid.

Lovett took over the seemingly impossible task of boosting bomber production from three or four a month to 500, then 775 and finally 1,000 a month. His success was hailed as one of the great achievements of World War Two.

He left the old War Department post in 1945 to return to the New York banking firm of Brown Brothers, Harriman & Co. But less than two years later, he was called back to the government to serve as undersecretary of state.

Although just recovering from a serious operation, he took the State Department post as the insistence of his old friend Marshall, then secretary.

He said at the time there were "three people to whom I can never say no"—his wife, Marshall and Henry L. Sumson, the late secretary of war.

As a diplomat in the cold war,

Lovett adopted a get-tough, show-me policy toward Russia. He insisted that Moscow give proof through acts instead of words, that it desired peace.

When he resigned from the State Department in 1949, President Truman praised him for "outstanding ability and selfless devotion to the public interest."

Lovett returned again to the banking business. But when Marshall became secretary of defense a year ago, he accepted a call to serve as deputy secretary.

Lovett was born in Huntsville, Tex., Sept. 14, 1895. His father, Judge Robert Scott Lovett, was head of the Union Pacific Railroad.

Hour's 'Barking Time' Allowed For Dogs

HAPEVILLE, Ga., Sept. 13 (AP)—If a Hapeville dog barks or howls for an hour, his master is merely maintaining a pet.

But if the pooch carries on like that for 61 minutes, the man is maintaining a nuisance and neighbors can call the cops.

An ordinance newly adopted by City Council in this Atlanta suburb sets one hour as the allowable barking time before a dog's owner can be charged with a misdemeanor.

Some legal beagles hereabouts think this "barking limit" may be a unique approach to an old problem.

In the wilds, skunks often are stricken with sinus trouble, distemper and rabies.

Britain To Get Back Securities On Loan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—Administrator W. Stuart Symington said yesterday the Reconstruction Finance Corp. soon will release to the British half the assets Britain posted to secure a $25-million dollar RFC loan Aug. 1, 1941.

By Oct. 1, he said, the entire loan will have been fully repaid and the remainder of the securities will be returned to the British.

Both interest and principal on the loan, have been taken care of entirely by dividend and interest receipts from the American concerns whose securities are owned by the British and were posted to secure the loan.

The securities were valued at about 500 million dollars when they were pledged as collateral but rising values in the stock market and elsewhere have lifted their current value to more than one billion.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

By Mary Lee Taylor

Stuffed Pork Steaks

1 lb. lean pork
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup finely cut celery
1/2 cup finely cut onion
1/2 cup hot water
1/2 cup fat milk
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon salt

Mix bread cubes, celery, onion, milk, pepper and 1 meas. salt until bread cubes lose their shape. Put on meat slices; roll up and fasten with toothpicks. Roll one at a time in mixture of 2 tablesps. flour and 1/2 meas. salt. Brown slowly on all sides in hot shortening. Drain off fat; add water. Cover and cook over low heat 1 hour, or until meat is tender. Put meat on warm platter. Add drained corn to liquid in pan; blend in 2 meas. flour. Boil and stir 1 min., or until sauce is thickened. Makes 4 servings.

*Use four 5 x 4-in. slices of pork shoulder or butt, about 1/2-in. thick.

You Will Need:
Pot Milk, Pork, Whole Kernel Corn, Bread, Celery.
